INDIA SUPPORTS RUSSIAN OIL PRICE CAP, SAYS U.S. OFFICIAL

India has shown "great interest" in capping Russian oil price, US Deputy Secretary of Treasury Wally Adeyemo said on Friday

'IT WILL LOWER ENERGY PRICE FOR CONSUMERS'

The price cap will ensure that there is a reduction in revenues for Russia, the US official said after meeting Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman. "In my conversation with Indian officials and policy makers about the price cap coalition, they have shown great interest as this is in line with India's objective of lowering energy price for consumers," Adeyemo said

School associations write to PM on graft in edu dept, want Nagesh out

DONNA EVA @Bengaluru

AT least two Karnataka school organisations have written to Prime Minister Narendra Modi on alleged corruption within the School Education and Literacy Department.

The Registered Unaided Private Schools Management Association (RUPSA) and Associated Managements of Primary and Secondary Schools in Karnataka (KAMS) wrote to the PM on Friday, appealing for the removal of Education Minister BC Nagesh, and pointing out issues plaguing the department over the past two years. The issues pointed out included renewal of recognition of schools, building and fire safety compliance certificates, constant transfer of teachers, stoking of religious issues, harassment of schools and bribe demands from department officials. "The department has started new method of appointing 3-men committees. These panels visit schools in the guise of verification. If not bribed, they will find some lacunae and harass the schools," the RUPSA letter alleged.

KAMS stated in its letter that "unscientific, irrational, discriminatory and non-complaint norms" have been applied to schools. "The education ministry is impatient and understands the actual pathetic situation, and resolves many of the issues. Two different BJP ministers caused damage to budget schools rather than those schools which are commercialising education, allowing more and more investors to set up, which will directly cost more fees per child," the letter said. KAMS also mentioned delays in RTE reimbursements, failure to provide government prescribed textbooks on time and the department's failure to control corruption at every level.

Nagesh said proof must be provided. He said the issue of corruption can be solved if proper procedure is followed, and complaints are filed against relevant officers. He urged schools to file complaints with the education department or directly approach the Karnataka Lokayukta to file details on cases of bribery and corruption they have been facing.

Azad's exit demolishes Cong prospects in the J&K elections

BJP says it is ready to welcome Azad, but it could be counterproductive to both sides

Since Azad is said to be getting a lot of traction, the better option for him would be to quickly float a regional party

It will give him more time to consolidate unlike Amarinder Singh in Punjab who had just a few months before polls to launch his party

Given Azad's good rapport with Modi, his party could get into an electoral arrangement with the BJP, just like Amarinder did

But whether or not the BJP would want to project him as the CM face is a big question

Veteran leader ends five-decade association with party, accuses Sonia of letting her son destroy the consultative mechanism

Azad from the Congress, Ghulam Nabi roasts Rahul

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

IN a body blow to the Congress, veteran leader Ghulam Nabi Azad on Friday ended his five decades association with the party. In his scathing five-page resignation letter to party president Sonia Gandhi, Azad called her a "nominal figurehead" as all important decisions are taken by her "immature" son Rahul, or worse, his "security guards and PAs".

Azad said he was giving up all party positions, including primary membership, as affairs in the party have touched the nadir. "The situation in the Congress has reached such a point of no return that now 'proxies' are being propped up to take over the leadership of the party. This happened because the leadership in the past eight years has tried to foist a non-serious individual at the helm of the party," the former Jammu and Kashmir chief minister said in his letter. He accused Rahul of demolishing the consultative mechanism, sidelining senior leaders and letting "inexperienced sycophants" run the party.

This paper was the first to report in January that Azad, a prominent leader of the Group of 23, was on his way out.

Terming the entire organisational election process a "farce and a sham", Azad said no election has been held at any level of the organisation anywhere in the country.

In a show of solidarity, many Jammu and Kashmir Congress leaders also quit the party. They include Ghulam Mohmmad Saroori, Choudhary Muhammad Akram, Muhammad Amin Bhat, Gulzar Ahmad, Abdur Rashid Dar, R S Chib, Jugal Kishore Sharma, Sham Lal Bhagat, Naresh Gupta and Salman Nazmi.

The Congress said Azad's resignation was unfortunate and its timing awful, coming at a time the party is engaged in combating the BJP on issues of price rise and unemployment. Several Congress leaders criticised Azad for his personal attack on Rahul.

"A man who has been treated with the greatest respect by the Congress leadership has betrayed it by his vicious personal attacks which reveal his true character. GNA's DNA has been Modi-fied," tweeted party's Communication and Media in-charge, Jairam Ramesh.

However, senior leader Prithviraj Chavan said the Congress should introspect why big leaders like Azad leave the party.

SUSPENSION OFF, FIFA WORLD CUP ON

The international football federation (FIFA) lifted the suspension imposed on All India Football Federation on Friday. In a late communication, the FIFA said, "The Bureau of the FIFA Council has decided to lift the suspension that was imposed on the All India Football Federation (AIFF) due to undue third-party influence." This will mean India will now be eligible to host the Under 17 Women's World Cup scheduled to begin on October 11

SOREN MAY BE BACK AS CM IF IT'S SIMPLE DISQUALIFICATION

SHAHID FARIDI @New Delhi

IN what may appear to be a bizarre wish, Jharkhand Chief Minister Hemant Soren is hoping that media reports on his disqualification come true and the Election Commission of India disqualifies him as a member of the state Legislative Assembly.

The CM, sources said, is however afraid that the election commission may not stop at merely taking away his membership. He fears it may even bar him from contesting elections for up to six years. Though the law says a legislator can be barred from contesting election only in the case of conviction by a court of law for more than two years, the Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM) leadership is bracing for all eventualities.

In a scenario where the commission disqualifies him as an MLA, he would have to resign as CM. But no law stops him from being re-elected on the same day as the leader of the ruling alliance comprising the JMM, Congress and the Rashtriya Janata Dal. As a leader of the ruling alliance, he may again stake his claim to form the government. The governor would have no option but to swear him in as CM.

The state legislature has 81 seats. Soren's JMM has 30 MLAs, its ally Congress 18, and three seats are held by other smaller allies. Together the ruling alliance has a strength of 51. Even if the three Congress MLAs recently caught with unaccounted cash by the Bengal Police vote against him, the CM commands a comfortable majority.

The CM has held consultations with his allies and JMM MLAs about all possible scenarios. Sources said Soren would return as CM on the same day if the EC lets him off with a mere disqualification.

The other option is to appeal against the EC order in a high court. As per law, he would have eight weeks to appeal against the EC order in the court. If the court gives an adverse judgment, he would be allowed to appeal in the Supreme Court, which can decide the case as per its convenience.

Jharkhand Governor Ramesh Bais is likely to make the EC order public on Saturday and act as per its recommendation. He had sought the poll panel's advice on whether the CM holding a mining licence amounted to holding "an office of profit". The allegation against the CM was made by the BJP in a letter to the governor. The party had demanded Soren's disqualification under Sec 9(A) of the Representation of the People Act.

The CM in his defence said that the mining lease does not fall under the purview of the office of profit rules as he got a 10-year lease in 2008 when he was not CM. He said he had in any case applied for cancellation of the lease in the same month it was allotted.

BDA commissioner shunted out, day after SC rebuke

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE state government on Friday transferred BDA Commissioner Rajesh Gowda following an oral order by the Supreme Court conveying its displeasure over non-adherence of its orders by the commissioner while allotting alternative sites. Sites allotted to 5 persons, including Home Minister Araga Jnanendra, have come under scanner. Kumar G Naik, Additional Chief Secretary, Energy Department, has been given concurrent charge as BDA Commissioner.

SC's observations on Thursday came during a routine hearing of regularisation of properties in Dr Karanth Layout. The bench rapped Gowda for causing losses to BDA by offering alternative sites in RMV IInd Stage Extension for sites originally allotted in HSR Layout. A BDA official said, "Of 96 alternative sites allotted since Nov. 2021, SC questioned the five alternative sites measuring 50x80 sq ft allotted on recovered properties at RMV IInd Stage Extension to Home Minister, ex-Kalaburagi MP Basavaraj Ganpathrao Patil Sedam, Bagalkot MLA Veerabhadrayya Charantimath, ex-KPSC member M Nagaraj and an official's wife Geetha." P2

Govt to decide on pleas for events at Idgah Maidan

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

A division bench of Acting Chief Justice Alok Aradhe and Justice S Vishwajith Shetty of the Karnataka high court on Friday modified the interim order of the single judge that status quo be maintained at Chamarajpet Idgah Maidan, permitting the state government to consider and pass orders on applications received by the Deputy Commissioner seeking to use the land for religious and cultural activities for a limited period from August 31, 2022.

"The Constitution of India itself fosters brotherhood amongst various sections of the society. The principle of religious tolerance is the characteristic of Indian civilization. We therefore, at this stage, in the peculiar facts of the case, modify the interim order," the court said. But the court clarified that the rest of the directions in the interim order remain unaltered, and added that the observations or findings should have no bearing on the merits of the matter either in this appeal or in writ petition pending before the single judge.

The single judge on Thursday passed the interim order to maintain status quo regarding the Idgah Maidan, and permitted the state government and BBMP to use the land as playground, and celebrate Republic Day and Independence Day. The Muslims use it for two days a year - Ramzan and Bakrid.

Before the single judge, the petitioners have challenged order passed by BBMP Joint Commissioner on August 6, 2022 rejecting the application filed by the petitioner to register khata of the property measuring 2 acres 5 guntas land in survey No.40 in the name of Karnataka State Wakf Board. A day after this single judge's interim order, the state government moved the court by filing appeal.

CM Bommai to hold meeting today

Bengaluru: Following the HC order, CM Basavaraj Bommai said that he will convene a meeting with the Advocate General, Revenue Minister and other stakeholders on Saturday to discuss about the implementation of the order. "While keeping in mind that peace should not be disturbed, it is also important to understand the feelings of the people," Bommai added.

Wakf Board mulls legal action

ENS @ Bengaluru

HITTING out at BBMP Joint Commissioner SM Srinivasa's ruling that Chamarajpet Idgah Maidan belongs to the Revenue department, Wakf Board chairman Shaafi Saadi said that they and Central Muslim Association are mulling legal action.

The statement comes after the high court passed an interim order stating that status quo at Idgah Maidan be maintained, and that prayers for Ramzan and Bakrid to be allowed only.

The chairman also contented that in Chamarajpet, Hindus and Muslims were coexisting in harmony. "There is some tension due to the influence of outsiders. The Joint Commissioner was influenced by them which led to the decision. Wakf Board and Central Muslim Association will take legal steps against the Joint Commissioner," he said.

The Joint Commissioner said that his decision came after giving sufficient time to the board to furnish additional documents, but the Wakf Board failed to prove their ownership. "The BBMP will also take legal steps to defend itself," he said.

Wholesalers fear losses over shifting Kalasipalya market

NAMRATA SINDWANI
@ Bengaluru

WHOLESALERS at Kalasipalya market are against the decision to shift to Singena Agrahara on Hosur Road, citing losses in their businesses as the move will mount transport cost. Vais Ilyaz, a wholesaler at the market, said that the market is centrally-located where people can easily come. There is a bus stand nearby that helps farmers get their produce to the market and sell it, he said, adding that people and small business owners will be benefited if the market is not shifted.

A new vegetable market is all set to come up near Singena Agrahara for which a 48-acre land has also been acquired at a cost of Rs 100 crore. Secretary of special markets (fruits, vegetables, and flowers), Department of Agricultural Marketing, Dr V Rajanna said that the market is expected to shift within 3-4 months. Vazeer Khan, another seller, echoed Ilyaz, saying that the decision will increase transport cost. However, president of Vegetables and Fruits Wholesale Merchant's Association RV Gopi said that the decision will be beneficial as a bigger space will be available, and denied issue of transport. But he added that the move might take a year or two due to a land litigation obstacle.

Mastin Khan, a small farmer from the area, said since the Kalasipalya bus stand nearby was not being shifted, it will be impractical to move the market, depriving farmers of easy access to the bus stand.

SC: Secy, his deputy need to be transferred

JUSTICE S Abdul Nazeer told BDA advocate S K Kulkarni, "Your commissioner has violated our order. Instead of a G category site in HSR Layout, you are offering one at RMV Layout which is worth Rs 10 crore now. It is a financial liability, a financial loss to the BDA."

The judge added, "You must immediately shift him from the BDA. He has no respect for our orders. From today, he shall not sign any important files. He cannot take any important decision. "The judge repeatedly reiterated the need to shift him out. The HC has said that the allotment of G category sites (given to those in public life) in HSR Layout itself is illegal and the allotment of alternative sites has been done in RMV where sites cost between Rs 9 and Rs 10 crore.

The court also ordered that the secretary and deputy secretaries in BDA too need to be transferred. The SC had in its order, dated October 26, 2021, stated that intermediate sites too need to be auctioned along with corner sites for mobilising resources for the Authority. It forbid allotment of recovered properties as well and added that sites cannot be offered in already developed layouts but only in new layouts.

"In this regard, digital, financial and technology literacy have been made mandatory in all degree courses in the state," he said. TAURUS

Taureans who are travelling can afford to thank their foresight, mainly because the best possibilities seem to lie far from home. All intimate and romantic plans will be subject to sudden change, unless each and every detail has been worked out.

Once again it's your financial situation which is at issue. Given that major questions have been answered, today is the ideal moment for an outrageous shopping spree. There's nothing to do but spend, spend, spend. Hopefully you've got sufficient credit!

Financial costs are a minor conside-ration. Much more important is your social life, including relations with lovers, children and completely new friends. Not everyone has been kind to you, but perhaps they were under pressures of their own. Take your pleasures gladly and try something new.

You have learned to turn the spotlight on to areas of your life which have been ignored for far too long. The best way to achieve the contentment you deserve is to diversify your activities and broaden your interests. You have assets and talents which other people could benefit from as well.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

You need to take a little time to protect yourself and ensure that others are in no position to undermine your self-confidence. If they should try, see that they don't succeed. Aside from such questions, your social stars are certainly promising.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
I'd like to say that all the uncertainty and confusion of the past is at an end, but I can't - not just yet! However, if only you could alter your attitudes you would see just how well off you really are. It's quite possible that change is for the good, and that a small loss now paves the way for a big gain later on.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The Moon is in a friendly sector of your chart, indicating that yours is one of that group of signs sharing welcome emotional influences. Yet you may have to take second place just for a while, as partners hog the limelight. Why not make the most of it and put your feet up?

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Even though financial stars are now less significant than before, you must try and look ahead because innovative schemes could well prove to be money-spinners. In finance, as in love, long-term bets are best. You should also take apparently wonderful promises with a pinch of salt.

Probe into 1,034 ACB cases in limbo

Govt yet to transfer cases, staff to Lokayukta; delay raises fear of tampering with evidence

YATHIRAJU @ Bengaluru

INVESTIGATIONS into more than 1,000 cases booked under the Prevention of Corruption Act, pending before the now-abolished Anti Corruption Bureau (ACB), have hit a roadblock. Reason: The state government has not yet transferred the cases and staff of ACB to Karnataka Lokayukta as per the directions issued by the Karnataka High Court on August 11, 2022.

Due to the delay, there are chances of evidence being tampered with and witnesses being influenced which will affect the trial of the cases.

Between its tenure from 2016 and June 2022, the ACB registered 2,121 cases, of which 1,034 cases were pending investigation. When it was set up in 2016, it had 322 posts, including one Additional Director General of Police, 1 Inspector General of Police, 10 Superintendents of Police, 35 Deputy Superintendents of Police, 75 Police Inspectors, 200 Head Constables/Police Constables.

While quashing the notification withdrawing powers of dealing cases under Prevention of Corruption Act from the Lokayukta while forming the ACB, the HC, on August 11 directed the state government to take steps to transfer all inquiries, investigations and other disciplinary proceedings before the ACB till the date of the judgment to Lokayukta, which in turn have to proceed from the stage at which they are pending, in accordance with law.

Admitting the risk involved in evidence in sensitive cases being tampered with due to the delay, Lokayukta Justice B S Patil said, "Delay is not right and timely action is required. The state government already made it clear that it will abide by the HC order. Our officials have also met the Chief Secretary to get the cases and staff transferred to Lokayukta. The Chief Secretary conveyed to us that they are making preparations for shifting of cases as well as staff. Hoping it will be done soon, he added.

4 injured in clash between 2 groups on Magadi Road

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

PEOPLE at Agrahara Dasarahalli bus stop on Magadi Road near Veeresh theatre ran helter-skelter on Thursday at 8.30 pm after men from two separate groups wielding lethal weapons attacked each other over a trivial issue. Four of them, who sustained severe injuries, were treated in a hospital. Both the groups are said to be known to each other. It all started when one of them stared at the other group. The Govindaraja Nagar police registered a complaint and counter complaint.

One of the injured identified as R Praveen, 30, resident of Agrahara Dasarahalli working in a private firm in Rajajinagar Industrial Area, has accused Prajwal alias Gundda, Prashanth and Kiran of attacking him lethal weapons.

Praveen, along with his friend Chandru, had gone near the bus stop to have tea. The three suspects, who also came there, saw the victim and picked a fight with him for staring at them. All the three suspects are alleged to have been wielding lethal weapons. In the heated argument, Praveen was attacked by the three. In self-defence, Praveen and his friend are alleged to have pulled the weapons from the three suspects and have also attacked all the three after which the three escaped from the spot.

"Praveen who was taken to the hospital by his friend came to the police station after treatment and filed the complaint against the three suspects around 11. 30 pm," the police said.

Twenty minutes later after the complaint was registered against them, one of the suspects Prashanth also filed a counter complaint against Praveen for attacking them.

The police have registered an attempt to murder case in both the cases.

The police have found out that that there is a criminal case against Prashanth in MN Halli police station, three cases are against Prajwal in MN Halli, Magadi Road and Doddaballapura police station. Praveen is also wanted in a crime case registered by the Basaweshwaranagar police station. Further investigations are on.

HEALTH VISION DOCUMENT

Non-Communicable Diseases emerge as public health risk

SHILPA P @ Bengaluru

THE Health Vision Group, in its vision document, has noted that the burden of Non-Communicable Diseases (NCDs) is emerging as a major public health problem to be dealt with on priority, and recommended reducing the burden of NCDs by 50% by 2030.

It has been advised to chalk out a comprehensive action plan that includes prevention, screening, diagnosis and care, to reduce and also strengthen the existing NCD cell, NPCDCS (National Programme for Prevention and Control of Cancer, Diabetes, Cardiovascular diseases and Stroke) programme, besides establishing a task force to guide an implement it.

The vision group has noted that the burden of NCDs, also known as chronic diseases or lifestyle-related disorders, especially cardiovascular diseases (7.58%), stroke (150/million), chronic lung diseases (4.36%) have high socio-economic impact, while cancers (126.25/million), diabetes (7.50%), and mental disorders (34%) have moderate socio-economic impact.

The group pointed out that besides genetic reasons, urbanisation, fast-paced living stress, longevity of life leading to an increase in the elderly population, sedentary lifestyle, fast food culture including a diet low in fruits and vegetables (72.4%), high BP (23.6%), high total cholesterol (12.7%), smoking (9.3%), high body mass index (5.5%), alcohol and drug abuse (4%) and high fasting plasma glucose levels (3.6%) are leading to the growing burden of NCDs.

The recently completed national NCD monitoring survey, which had Karnataka among the study population, indicated that 58.70% of subjects did not have WHO recommended levels of physical activity, 32.80% used tobacco, 28.50% had raised BJP, 15.90% used alcohol, the mean dietary salt intake was 8gm, which have led to increased burden of NCD.

What it suggests

① Raise awareness at schools, colleges and workplaces to promote healthy lifestyle activities, have counselling services and dedicated staff to assess NCDs in public healthcare facilities

① Create environment for walking, cycling, sports; reduce use of personal transport

① Taxation policies to promote healthy habits, by increasing excise taxes and prices on tobacco products, alcoholic beverages

HC dismisses Intel's plea, slaps ₹10L fine

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court imposed a fine of Rs 10 lakh on Intel Technology India Private Limited and Intel Corporation while dismissing their plea against an order passed by the Competition Commission of India (CCI) on probing its warranty policy.

Justice Krishna S Dixit passed the order while dismissing the petition filed on August 9, 2019 against the CCI which had ordered an investigation into their warranty policy which "potentially resulted in denial of market access to parallel importers and re-sellers of boxed micro-processors for desktops and laptops".

The court said that the petitioners hastily rushed to the court and unjustifiably secured an interim order that interdicted an inquiry of preliminary nature for all these years to the enormous prejudice of public interest. "This petition, besides being premature and absolutely devoid of merits, is an abortive attempt by the applicants to scuttle the innocuous statutory proceedings of the Commission. Therefore, this is a fit case for dismissal with exemplary cost of Rs 10 lakh to be payable to the CCI", the court said, adding that it is hoped and expected that the long-pending investigation should be accomplished at the earliest.

The probe was ordered based on a complaint filed by Matrix Info Systems Private Limited in February 2019 alleging that its 'warranty policy' is in contravention of the Competition Act in as much as they were refusing to provide the warranty in India for boxed microprocessors which are imported from authorised sources abroad but not those sourced from the Intel authorised dealers in India.

KISS-DU SETTING ANOTHER MILESTONE

Celebrating Five Glorious Years of KISS-DU

For the founder of the KIIT Dr. Achyuta Samanta, the conceptualization of the KISS (Kalinga Institute of Social Science) was not merely a vision for the downtrodden but it was like the turning of a page of his vision to power the powerless through self-reliance. He envisioned education as the gateway to the mission's success.

From a nascent baby to the world's largest learning hub for the backward in the world, KISS has been preceded by so many milestones in its almost three-decade-long existence. This is an addition.

Deemed to be University for the last five years, KISS –DU has left no space for any of its kind to breathe down its neck. It has simply grown taller and taller, dwarfing many around it.

Fact-sheet

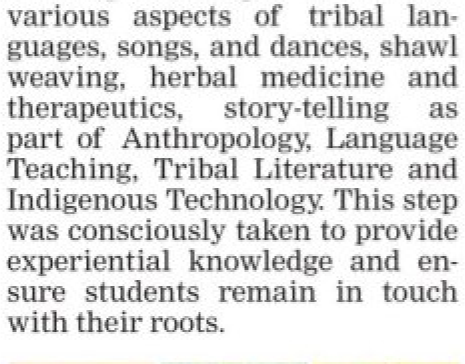
KISS Deemed to be University (KISS-DU) completes a glorious five years of existence today on 25th August 2017. It is a remarkable feat for this one-of-a-kind institute that has been conceptualized to provide higher education exclusively to tribal students.

Along the way, KISS-DU has recorded some significant milestones and achievements that have helped it reach where it is today. On 15 September 2017, Hon'ble Prime Minister Narendra Modi congratulated KISS-DU for being granted University status, marking the beginning of a successful journey for the institute.

The account five major milestones, among the list of many, are -

1- To enhance the education experience, KISS-DU inducted 23 distinguished academicians as Emeritus Professors who will guide students and mentors in innovative research.

2-Similarly, 14 Professors of Practice who have no formal training were roped in to teach various aspects of tribal languages, songs, and dances, shawl weaving, herbal medicine and therapeutics, story-telling as part of Anthropology, Language Teaching, Tribal Literature and Indigenous Technology. This step was consciously taken to provide experiential knowledge and ensure students remain in touch with their roots.



3-The University has also instituted seven research chairs to honour seven illustrious personalities of Odisha. The students receive in-depth learning on the life and works of Odisha's great luminaries.

Education is a joy, not a load

4-Moreover, to preserve the tribal culture of students, KISS-DU proudly runs seven tribal-centric schools on its campus. There is a committee for the protection, promotion and preservation of Tribal Culture, Heritage and Diversity. KISS-DU has also signed more than 30 MoUs with Indian and Overseas Universities and institutions for academic and industry collaboration.

5-KISS-DU has set up an innovation council named with seven innovative research centers under it on areas like Indigenous Innovation and Entrepreneurship, Sacred Groves, Indigenous Cultural Heritage and Diversity, Indigenous Science and Technology, Indigenous Knowledge on Herbal Medicines and Therapeutics, Indigenous Languages and Narratives and Study of Indigenous Peoples across the Globe. The focus has always been to make students feel closer to home and make education relevant and fun.

The University has made a name for itself in a short span of five years and is on the right path, having already produced three Ph.D. scholars. With the leadership of its visionary founder Dr. Achyuta Samanta and the guidance of a well-rounded team of academicians and professors, KISS-DU is expected to scale great heights in the years to come.

Yediyurappa back as numero uno, talks politics with Modi, Nadda

In bigger role, BSY will jostle for more political elbow room, have final say on candidates

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

B S Yediyurappa greets Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi on Friday

BJP's 'master strategist' B S Yediyurappa met Prime Minister Narendra Modi and party president J P Nadda in New Delhi on Friday. He is likely to meet Home Minister Amit Shah later, after he receives an appointment.

"I have asked for more time from Nadda to discuss Karnataka and hope to meet him after PM Modiji's visit to Mangalore on September 2. Both Modiji and Nadda have assured they would give more time to discuss Karnataka," he told reporters.

Accompanying Yediyurappa to Delhi is newly elected Rajya Sabha MP from Karnataka Lehar Singh, who is also his close associate. Asked what was on the meeting agenda, Yediyurappa said "updates and politics" would be discussed anyway.

BJP sources confirmed that Yediyurappa had sought time with PM Modi and other central leaders a few days ago, to thank the central leadership for appointing him to the Central Parliamentary Board and Central Election Committee of the party. For Yediyurappa, this visit is about flexing muscle and emerging as numero uno within the party once again; post his resignation in July last year, he was increasingly becoming irrelevant within the party. In fact, his supporters were aghast that Yediyurappa couldn't get Vijayendra to become MLC, and had also failed to get him into the ministry.

For the BJP, Yediyurappa is special, and the party has made many exceptions for him: he was made chief minister in July 2019, though he was 75 years old, and now, at the age of 79 -- an ideal 'margadarshak' candidate – he has been appointed to the BJP Parliamentary Board.

The BJP has much at stake in the assembly polls, and is likely to depend heavily on its star striker. Yediyurappa has been BJP's single biggest performer in elections since 2008, and is likely to do so in the upcoming polls too. As chief minister, he had spoken of expecting to win 150 seats, but a series of unpleasant scandals has tarnished the image of the party in recent months.

Sources said Yediyurappa, who had jotted down talking points with the central leadership, sought suggestions from Modi and asked him about his expectations, besides his opinion on other issues.

Asked if Yediyurappa will try to get his nominee as party president, and if it figured in the discussions, sources said it was on his agenda, and he did not raise it. There has been much buzz about a change in party president, with Nalin Kumar Kateel's term drawing to a close. The names doing the rounds are General Secretary CT Ravi, Union Minister of State Shobha Karandlaje and MLA Arvind Limbavali. There is talk that Yediyurappa will try to instal one of his nominees as party president, which would mean that he has the final word in ticket selection. Sources said Yediyurappa would also like more of his supporters accommodated in the ministry, which has five vacant berths.

Yediyurappa also met National General Secretary (Org) B L Santhosh, with whom he has shared an uneasy relationship and who remains his challenger. Santhosh has staffed the party organisation with his loyalists at all levels, and removed many considered close to Yediyurappa.

His meeting with RSS General Secretary Dattatreya Hosabale, who hails from his native district, is unlikely because the latter is in Maharashtra.

Asked if BBMP polls figured in the discussions today, sources said leaders like R Ashoka, ST Somashekar, K Gopalaiah and others will be playing a more prominent role in the polls and Yediyurappa's role will be more supervisory. BJP is likely to do well because it is in power, which gives it a natural advantage, sources said.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai thanks the gathering at an event for the Tigala community in Tumkuru on Friday

Bommai does a BSY, doles out largesse for Tigalas

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Tumakuru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai, in an apparent attempt to woo the backward Tigala community for the BJP, ahead of the BBMP and assembly polls, on Friday declared that the government will issue an order to officially observe the community's deity 'Agni Banniraya Swamy' jayanti. "But it will not be an official holiday," he clarified, while taking part in the community's convention held at Glass House at Amanikere tank here.

On April 1, former chief minister B S Yediyurappa had, in a similar move, taken part in the 'jayanti' organised by the community, and announced Rs 25 lakh personally for the construction of a community hall.

Bommai, slipping into Yediyurappa's oversized shoes, went a step ahead and announced setting up of a study chair on the deity in Tumkur University. "Though the Constitution gave equal rights to all, the question of how many benefited from it is still a question. You should back those who strengthen your community," Bommai said, adding that his government will release Rs 5 crore for the construction of community halls that remained incomplete.

Former MLA Ne La Narendra Babu claimed that the community, which has a sizable population in Old Mysuru region, Bengaluru, Ramanagara and Tumkuru districts, plays a decisive role in about 48 assembly constituencies.

Bommai, responding to Babu's proposal, promised 10 acres of land and a CA site for the community in Bengaluru. Interestingly, he did not reply to the demand of the community – which now comes under 2A reservation -- that it should be included under Category-I.

The event also saw scores of BJP leaders, including former minister C P Yogeshwar, LS member G S Basavaraju, MLAs G B Jyotiganesh, Dr C M Rajesh Gowda, Masale Jayaram, BBMP ticket aspirant A H Basavaraju, taking part. The religious head, Sri Jnananandapuri Swami, was honoured on the occasion.

DKS, HDK fly down

After Bommai left, KPCC president D K Shivakumar and former chief minister H D Kumaraswamy, who were attending another event in Hunsur, flew to Tumakuru, braving the rain. Kumaraswamy promised that the JDS would field two of the community's leaders in the 2023 assembly polls.

Betrayal by Azad, say Kharge, DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

OPPOSITION Leader in the Rajya Sabha Mallikarjuna Kharge and KPCC president D K Shivakumar slammed veteran Congress leader Ghulam Nabi Azad, who ended his nearly five-decade-old association with the Congress party on Friday.

Azad's decision to quit the party at a time when everyone needs to work together raises questions about his commitment and also amounts to indirectly cooperating with communal forces, Kharge stated. He said Azad was among senior leaders in the party, and he was dismayed after seeing his resignation letter. The party had given him all positions, even beyond his expectations, he stated.

"Azad set a wrong example by not only betraying the party but also the nation... whatever disagreement he might have had with Rahul Gandhi, he could have spoken to him since he was a member of the Congress Working Committee, the decision making authority," Shivakumar said, addressing an emergency press conference at the KPCC office.

Questioning Azad's integrity, he said, "You were CWC member, AICC general secretary, central minister, chief minister of Jammu and Kashmir. When the Central government abrogated Article 371 in J&K, almost all leaders from the state were kept under house arrest, you escaped by virtue of being leader of the opposition in the Rajya Sabha. What more powers and posts could Sonia Gandhi have given you?"

The Congress is fighting the onslaught on constitutional aspirations of minorities and Dalits by communal forces, and is working to unite the country, Kharge said. Azad's decision to quit at a time the Congress, under the leadership of Rahul Gandhi, is taking out a 'Bharat Jodo Yatra' will weaken the fight against these forces, Kharge said.

Azad should have been a guide and icon to the young, but let down the party and country, Shivakumar said. He claimed his resignation would not affect the party. "All Congress leaders are zero without the party," he added.

Cong to discuss Bharat Jodo Yatra

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

CONGRESS leaders will hold a series of meetings on Sunday and Monday in Bengaluru to discuss former AICC president Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra, preparations for the 2023 assembly polls and other political developments.

Senior Congress leaders Randeep Singh Surjewala, Digvijay Singh, Jairam Ramesh, Siddaramaiah, party legislators, KPCC office-bearers, 2018 assembly and 2019 Lok Sabha candidates will attend the meetings.

State Congress president D K Shivakumar said the party strategy for the state legislature session, starting from September 10, will be discussed during the legislative party meeting, he said. The party is likely to take up various issues, including alleged irregularities in police sub-inspector recruitments and the law and order situation in the state.

Shivakumar hit out at the BJP for distributing Vinayak Damodar Savarkar's posters for the Ganesh festival. "The BJP is not in a position to talk about development and that is the reason why they are resorting to such issues to divide society. What is the connection between Savarkar and Ganesh festival?" he said.

This apart, the CM also released Rs 5 crore each to Kolar and Chikkaballapur districts.

BJP ministers band against Kempanna, seek details of his work as contractor

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN the wake of contractors' association making fresh allegations of '40 per cent commission' against legislators, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai's cabinet ministers have slammed its president Kempanna and demanded that he furnish a list of works he undertook as contractor.

Ministers Govind Karjol, C C Patil and Murugesh Nirani held press meetings at various places on Friday, alleging that the Congress was behind the allegations. Many other ministers and leaders also took the Congress to task.

Speaking to reporters, Water Resources Minister Govind Karjol said in the last one year, his department has cleared 25,011 bills of various contractors. "Of these 25,000 bills, contractors did not raise any issue. We want to know about Kempanna's work, for which he was asked for commission. We want to know which place he had taken up the work and who demanded the commission. Kempanna looks like a sponsored agent of the Congress," he added.

PWD Minister C C Patil also demanded the work details of Kempanna and wanted to know how many members are there in his contractors' association. In the last few days, the atmosphere has been in favour of the BJP government. "In order to divert this, Congress is using Kempanna. Kempanna has become the mouthpiece of the Congress," he said.

BDA chairman S R Vishwanath alleged that it was the Congress that was giving commission to Kempanna to make such allegations against the state government.

BJP MLAs to file defamation case against Kempanna

Kalaburagi: Agriculture Minister B C Patil on Friday said BJP legislators will file a defamation case against Karnataka State Contractors' Association president Kempanna for making "commission allegations" against them. Patil said the allegations by Kempanna against the legislators are not new. "He has been making these allegations for many months, but he neither goes to court nor provides evidence about his allegations to the authorities concerned or the Chief Minister," he added.

Contractors protest, say deprived of work

KARWAR: Contractors of Uttara Kannada district on Friday staged a dharna demanding that the government stop giving work contracts to Karnataka Rural Infrastructure Development Limited and Nirmithi Kendra, and clear their pending bills. "Eighty per cent of the region is covered with forests. Industries cannot come up here. Thousands of people have taken up contract works. But now the government is issuing tenders to Nirmithi Kendra, depriving the contractors of their work," said Madhav Naik, president, Uttara Kannada District Civil Contractors' Association. He pointed out that this leads to more corruption, and demanded that all tenders awarded to KRIDL and Nirmithi Kendra should be scrapped and should be awarded to local contractors. The protestors raised slogans against the local MLA and the district administration and demanded clearance of pending bills.

> Siddaramaiah

TERMING the Basavaraj Bommai-led government "corrupt and dead", Opposition leader Siddaramaiah on Friday said 90 per cent of the promises made by the BJP in its election manifesto have not been not fulfilled.

Speaking during an interaction organised by the Mysuru District Journalists Association (MDJA) on Friday, the former chief minister said the state government has failed to initiate a judicial inquiry on corruption allegations against its own minister, proving that it supports corruption.

"In a democratic system when there are serious accusations, the government must order a probe by an independent agency instead of defending the allegation. Corruption in the BJP government is reaching new heights every day. Even the contractors' association has made serious allegation of 40 per cent commission being sought for works," he said.

Responding to the allegation of the contractors' association, he said, "Contractors keep a margin of 20 per cent on the total project cost and 15 per cent goes towards GST. With the remaining, how can a project be completed, which makes them compromise in the quality of work."

HDK WANTS TO BELL THE CAT

'Stop work, teach govt a lesson'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Mysuru

JDS leader H D Kumaraswamy said there is rampant corruption in the state after the BJP came to power in 2008. "MLAs have been demanding commission for development works from contractors. Contractors should stop all work and not participate in tenders for six months to teach the government a lesson," he told reporters on Friday.

The saffron party should answer to its conscience as it has developed a thinking that anything can be done with money after the success of Operation Lotus in the state, he said.

Referring to contractors' association president Kempanna, Kumaraswamy claimed that there was no percentage system in the H D Deve Gowda. "I want someone to bell the cat to end the rampant corruption. BJP leaders, who have ruined the system, are demanding evidence for the 40 per cent commission allegations. Why do you want evidence when you should answer to your conscience? Who will bell the cat when the system has collapsed?" he asked.

He said Karnataka needs an effective government to curb corruption and protect the interests of the common man. When asked about the ACB being dismantled, Kumaraswamy said many officers arrested in the mining scam were acquitted.

SC raises ceiling limit of iron ore mining for 3 Karnataka dists

Ballari, Chitradurga, Tumakuru to benefit

PTI @New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday raised the ceiling limit of iron ore mining for Ballari, Chitradurga, and Tumakuru districts in Karnataka, saying conservation of the ecology and environment must go hand in hand with the spirit of economic development.

The court raised the ceiling limit of iron ore mining from 28 MMT to 35 MMT for Ballari district, and from 7 MMT to 15 MMT for Chitradurga and Tumakuru districts. "Conservation of the ecology and the environment must go hand in hand with the spirit of economic development and the fine balance between the two goals is what is sought to be achieved even now," a bench headed by Chief Justice N V Ramana said.

The bench, also comprising Justices Hima Kohli and C T Ravikumar, passed the order on pleas seeking lifting of the ceiling limits of iron ore mining in these districts.

It referred to the May 20 order passed by the SC which had granted certain reliefs relating to the sale and export of iron ore in these three districts in Karnataka and had left open the question of lifting or relaxation of the ceiling limit for production of iron ore there.

The bench referred to the history of ceiling limits on the production of iron ore through court orders and noted that on July 29, 2011, and August 26, 2011, the apex court had imposed a ban on mining in these three districts based on the report of the Centrally Empowered Committee (CEC). It said in December 2017, the court had permitted to increase of the ceiling cap from 25 MMT to 28 MMT in Ballari district and from 5 MMT to 7 MMT for Chitradurga and Tumakuru districts, based on the July 14, 2017, report of the CEC.

"In 2017, this court was of the view that the situation had vastly changed in the state of Karnataka and had therefore allowed an increase in the ceiling limit. We are now in the year 2022," the apex court said.

The bench noted that in 2017, Karnataka had submitted before it that the ceiling limit may be raised to 40 MMT, and gradually increased later to 50 MMT. "However, the state of Karnataka is now in favour of a complete removal of the ceiling limit," it said. The top court said it appeared that the CEC, the state, the Ministry of Steel, Karnataka Iron and Steel Manufacturers Association, and mining lease holders are all "ad idem" (in agreement) that the changed situation on ground warrants a complete removal of ceiling limits that were imposed by the court.

THE Telangana High Court on Friday issued notices to BJP MLA T Raja Singh seeking his response by September 16, in a Criminal Revision Petition filed by the State government through the Station House Officer (SHO) - Mangalhat, challenging the decision of a local magistrate denying their request for remand in connection with his arrest.

Singh had posted a video on YouTube in which he made reference to a certain organisation and stand-up comic Munawar Faruqui's show, claiming that Faruqui "insulted Hindu Gods and Goddesses". In the video, which has since been taken down from the website hosting videos, Singh is accused of using derogatory terms to describe Prophet Muhammad.

The Police utilised a number of IPC provisions against the MLA, including encouraging animosity between diverse groups based on religion and taking actions that were detrimental to the upkeep of harmony. Singh was taken into custody on Tuesday.

RINSHAD C P, a native of Pattambi in Palakkad, is pursuing a course on Islamic Sharia. He is also taking classes on Indian philosophy and Hindu scriptures, specifically the Upanishads, Advaita philosophy and Bhagvad Gita, besides learning the Sanskrit language. It is not simply out of personal interest that he is learning all this. This is how his Islamic Sharia course, offered by the Academy of Sharia and Advanced Studies (ASAS) based at Shakthan Nagar in Thrissur, is designed.

In a world where people are quick to ridicule beliefs and ideas that differ from theirs, ASAS is an example how learning about such views actually widens a person's knowledge. This also makes the institution stand apart from other Islamic institutes. Run by Malik bin Dinar Islamic Complex, ASAS is under the management of Sunni organisation Samastha Kerala Jam-Iyyathul Ulema. Samastha Ernakulam district secretary Onampilly Muhammad Faizy, a Sanskrit scholar himself, is the brain behind the institution. "At ASAS, we try to make our students aware of the rich diversity of Indian culture and inculcate a positive vibe in them at a time when they are bombarded with information that often leaves them bitter," said Faizy, who did his graduation and post-graduation in Advaita from Sree Sankara College, Kalady.

He said Sanskrit is taught in a systematic way, beginning with Sidharoopam.

THE Upparpet police on Friday arrested Ravikumar, editor, printer and publisher of a fortnightly journal Parival Pathrike, who had been convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment by the 5th Additional Metropolitan Magistrate, Bengaluru. BA Harish Gowda, a retired IAS officer, while working as the Director of Pre-University Education Department in 2000 had filed a private complaint in the court against Ravikumar of committing the offence of printing and publishing false and defamatory articles.

In 2002, the trial court had sentenced Ravikumar to undergo one year imprisonment along with a fine. In the judgment on October 18, 2004, the District and Sessions Court had upheld the conviction and sentence. In 2013 the HC had set aside the said judgments, remanded the case to the trial court for further cross-examination of complainant witnesses. On August 30, 2017, the trial court sentenced Ravikumar to six months imprisonment and a fine. In the appeal filed by Gowda, District and Sessions Court enhanced the sentence to nine months. In the May, 2022, order, the HC limited the sentence to six months on the ground that in a private complaint, a complainant cannot seek enhancement of punishment. Consequently, Ravikumar was arrested.

GOVT SHOULD REACH OUT TO FARMERS TO RESOLVE MSP IMPASSE

Farmers are back on the borders of Delhi with a renewed resolve to force the Union government to provide a legal guarantee to the minimum support price for the purchase of farmer's produce. MSP has become the Central government's bugbear. A fresh round of tussle between the government and farmers is on the cards. While withdrawing the three controversial farm laws following protests by thousands of farmers on Delhi's borders, the government had assured them that the MSP would not be withdrawn and would find ways to strengthen it further. It has, however, been non-committal on giving it legal sanction.

Union Agriculture Minister Narendra Singh Tomar dashed whatever hopes the farmers may have had when he said in Parliament that the government had never committed to giving MSP a legal cover. He said all the government had promised was forming a committee to make MSP more effective and transparent, promote natural farming and change crop patterns, and keep the country's changing needs in mind. A committee was accordingly constituted. The government invited representatives of farmers to join the committee. But they rejected the committee for two reasons. One, a legal guarantee to MSP was not on its agenda. And two, the committee was packed with people behind drafting the three controversial farm laws. Representatives of Samyukt Kisan Morcha—the umbrella body of the farmers' organisations—have said that unless making a law on MSP is part of the terms of reference, it would not join it. The views of the government and the farmers on MSP remain as divergent as they have always been.

The government should take the farmers into confidence to find a mutually accepted solution to the vexing issue. Farmers and representatives of state governments, especially from Punjab, Haryana and Uttar Pradesh, should be invited for consultation and included in the committee. It was farmers from these states who had spearheaded the last agitation. Rumblings have started again in these states. The national capital can ill afford yet another blockade and round of violence.

OLYMPIAD FINE, BIGGER CHALLENGE IS LEGACY

It was heartening to see the response to the Chess Olympiad in Mahabalipuram. The International Chess Federation (FIDE) and the players of various countries called the event one of the best Olympiads in recent times. But now that lights have been switched off and the caravan has left town, the next, bigger challenge begins. Hosting a blue-riband event is well and good, but it will count for little if there's no discernible benefit in the months and years to come. The legacy aspect of the Olympiad will be determined by what happens next. There is now a proper momentum for chess in the country, and the question is whether the stakeholders can capitalise on it to lay the groundwork for more tournaments, Grandmasters (GMs), women players and, perhaps, a world champion in the Classical format.

As it stands, the country hosts only elite chess events annually, which is not good enough. There are also not enough events that hand out norms, so upcoming players must go to other countries to meet their norms. This has to change. The lack of women players is a global problem, but, shockingly, India hasn't produced a GM among women players for the last 11 years. Make it more inclusive so that women players want to play.

What the Olympiad also showed is that the country's centennials are ready to take over the mantle from the seasoned campaigners. So, in the future, the All India Chess Federation (AICF) may want to revisit the criteria for sending teams to the Olympiad. A change in selection policy could also be welcome. For example, suppose the Olympiad was held in Moscow or any other country apart from India. In that case, the likes of D Gukesh, Nihal Sarin and R Praggnanandhaa will not have been selected because of their inferior rating points compared to India's seniors. This was the issue raised by Pravin Thipsay, India's head of delegation at the Olympiad. Going forward, he wants to suggest to the All India Chess Federation that three people on ratings and two on form is a better way to select sides for team events.

Avoiding taxes is unfair, iniquitous and socially disruptive. The impact on developing countries is more harmful than on the advanced countries which are home to MNCs

TAXATION OF MULTINATIONAL CORPORATIONS

American consultants often quip that we can't escape two things in life: Death and Taxes. They fail to add that you need not pay tax anywhere if you head a multinational corporation (MNC) with a global network of subsidiaries, branches, licensees, et al. Legal pundits and chartered accountants will advise on how to shuffle costs within the conglomerate and avoid taxes. If you locate your head office in one of those balmy tax-free islands, it is the very heaven. You need no fear of the IRS nor shame as all of them do it.

By any measure, the system is unfair, iniquitous and socially disruptive. The impact on developing countries (DCs) is more harmful than on the advanced countries (ACs), which are home to MNCs. At one level, DCs are advised to offer tax and other incentives to promote foreign investment to accelerate growth, employment, income, etc. At another, MNCs siphon away more revenues than they contribute to the national kitty. OXFAM estimates that MNCs take away around $400–500 billion annually. They argue that if these revenues are retained within those countries, they would not need to beg for foreign aid.

The DCs have been fighting the tax battle to get a better share for decades, but without much success. It has been a battle of wits between MNC experts on the one side against those of the DCs on the other—the latter being invariably weaker. Newer structures for transfer pricing would be evolved to bypass regulation. A major handicap faced by the DCs was that the ACs viewed their defence of the interests of MNCs as tantamount to defending their national interest. There was a change in this mindset with the enormous growth of corporations. They began to threaten state power, and there were massive tax scandals in the first decade of this century, and the need to control the malaise dawned on them.

Another factor was the growing digitisation of the global economy that questioned conventional wisdom and century-old notions of taxation. For instance, a company may operate from anywhere and market everywhere, even without "a place of business" or owning assets or Uberisation. Quarrels also broke out on the newer idea of Google Tax. Attempts to resolve the difference within the EU met with unresolved political challenges when the IF was negotiated. IF is part of an international system named 'OECD/G20 Inclusive Framework (IF) on BEPS'. BEPS is an acronym for Base Erosion and Profit Shifting. The system came in following a deal between 136 countries and jurisdictions, as OECD announced on July 1, 2021. The deal was touted as "historic" and "groundbreaking".

IF was based on two pillars. Pillar I will apply to MNCs with greater than $20 billion in revenues globally with pre-tax profitability of at least 10%. The profits of these companies would be allocated to market jurisdictions whether they have any physical presence or not. All the existing digital taxes would be abolished, and no new digital tax would be allowed. Pillar II creates a new category of 15% for large multinational enterprises (MNEs). It seeks to preserve most of the extant privileges/rights.

What is surprising is the speed with which the work was done. On October 8, 2021, OECD was ready with a document for submission to the Finance Ministers of G20. It was done on October 13. By March 14, 2022, OECD had finalised its Commentary to Global Anti-Base Erosion (GloBE) Rules (Income Inclusion Rule (IIR) and the Under Taxed Payments Rule (UTPR), referred to collectively as the GloBE rules). Some members began to implement them.

> This speed was possible because the Inclusive Framework (IF) was heavily loaded in favour of MNCs. Much of the negotiation was secretive and dominated by the advanced countries, MNCs and their experts. The minimum (or lowering) tax, or what is called "Formulary Apportionment", was already in vogue in the West. The IF helped formalise or legitimise that policy at a low level of 15%

This speed was possible because the IF was heavily loaded in favour of MNCs. Much of the negotiation was secretive and dominated by the ACs, MNCs and their experts. The minimum (or lowering) tax, or what is called "Formulary Apportionment", was already in vogue in the West. The IF helped formalise or legitimise that policy at a low level of 15%. By abolishing digital taxes, it cures the festering quarrels with the large MNCs. If and when the IF comes into force, the MNCs will be the happiest. They can buy peace after paying a tax of 15%. There will be no need to worry about later-day Google tax or arbitraging tax jurisdictions.

It is worth emphasising that OECD has no mandate to work out a legally binding code on any issue. OECD codes are morally suasive. OECD is a rich man's club and not representative of developing countries. As explained earlier, the IF negotiations were secretive and dominated by ACs and MNCs.

The IF was negotiated with a tunnel vision that paid attention only to taxes, overlooking other aspects of MNC operations, such as "transfer pricing". Under IF, an MNC may be absolved of all unfair practices by paying a tax of 15%. The IF does not recognise the link between tax revenues and growth. A Brookings Paper said, "The new global tax deal is bad for development." (Julie McCarthy, May 16, 2022). DCs can ill afford to keep taxes at 15% as a formula-based approach to MNE profit reallocation would undermine their revenue base.

The new method, in reality, does not do away with tax havens but could create a new kind of tax haven. Tax Justice Network expressed this view. Though the Global Minimum Tax is 'historic', it fails to deliver fair and effective reforms. EURODAD, another Think Tank, also believes that the "OECD tax deal is unfair and fails to solve the problem." Though the Government of India was involved in the negotiations, it sought changes in the IF. It believes it denies the country its proper share of taxes from MNCs like Google, Facebook, Uber and Netflix. It is opposed to OECD setting tax rates for countries that impinge on its sovereign rights.

Overall, it is unlikely to be accepted or implemented by developing countries, including India. OECD may, however, flaunt it as a moral victory or code.

WHERE HAS ALL THE COTTON GONE

ANURADHA GOYAL

Author and founder of IndiTales

At a shopping mall in Bengaluru, I was searching for cotton garments that I could wear everyday. However, I returned home with barely anything—almost empty-handed! Pure cotton garments, especially innerwear, are difficult to find. Those garments that are 'cotton' also have some percentage of synthetic material mixed that is usually mentioned in fine print on the label.

When I asked Twitterati about cotton brands other than FabIndia, the choices were really limited. Those who suggested khadi ashram have never really visited it. This made me think about the missing cotton and its journey, from humble and ubiquitous to premium and elite.

This initially humble cotton is intertwined with India's business history; with its abundance of cotton exports, India ruled the world for many centuries. We were not just good at producing good quality cotton—we were also inventors and experimented with weaving. We deciphered how to add colour to the fabric, thereby multiplying the number of products to be sold with the same base fabric. One of our key innovations was adding colours that did not run—and the world went crazy after our fabrics. Cities like Masulipatnam, Dhaka, Calicut and Kashi came up as big centres of cotton weaving.

In museums in South East Asia, one can see displays of the Ikat fabric which was dyed using vegetable colours and herbs like turmeric. Anecdotes say that since these fabrics were embedded with medicinal herbs, those who took ill were cloaked in them to heal.

Then the Industrial Age swooped right in, giving a major blow to our indigenous, small-scale and sustainable industry—textile mills were the first to be mechanised.

Although synthetic fabrics started to occupy our shelves owing to low cost, less maintenance and the fashionable look they had, khadi ashrams and local production kept the supply of cotton flowing.

Even until the 1980s and 1990s, one could take pure cotton fabric to the local tailor, who would then use her or his creativity to design a beautiful piece of clothing. But post-liberalisation, shopping malls started dominating big cities. The choices and brand labels were many, and demand sky-rocketed, pushing the demand for locally produced cotton aside. People were enamoured with the durability factor of synthetic fabric and the sheen they had. So, most brands started mixing and stacking their shelves with synthetic clothes. The same formula was used for upholstery and home linen. Walk into any home décor shop and ask for pure cotton—you will suddenly feel like a creature from a whole other planet!

But there is good news—Although the per hectare yield has a lot of scope for improvement, the Ministry of Textiles states that India continues to be the largest producer of cotton, accounting for 25% of global production.Cotton trade engages about 6 million cotton farmers and 50–60 million people indirectly across the country. Interestingly, it also tells us that India's cotton to non-cotton fabric consumption ratio stands at 60:40 against the world average of 30:70. But I can only wonder what that ratio was around Independence—my hunch says perhaps more than 90:10. Can we get back to those levels?

> An assignment with a textile board told me about many toxic and even carcinogenic colours that are used for dyeing. Despite being a net exporter, India does import cotton on a need basis. An assignment with a textile board told me about many toxic and even carcinogenic colours that are used for dyeing. Exporters have to submit certificates to declare that products being exported have none of these chemicals. India too has similar laws for fabrics that are imported. But, what about garments produced and sold in India? I could not find an answer, though there is ample data about the pollution these dyes cause—especially water pollution. No wonder that almost all the weavers I met chose to wear only pure, natural white cotton kurtas.

As consumers, have we stopped demanding pure cotton? Probably yes. Or are we choosing convenience over health and the environment? Are we choosing a huge variety of colours and styles in our wardrobe over the presumably limited options that cotton offers? Are our fashion designers not being creative enough with cotton? Are big brands taking over the markets, forcing us to buy what they produce? Do we lack awareness about the pros of wearing cotton and the cons of wearing synthetic clothes? I think, Yes. How many of us know that cheap colours can cause serious health hazards?

At the policy level, the government needs to work towards increasing per hectare yield, ensure competitive pricing of cotton, push innovations across the cotton supply chain and create awareness.

Maybe it is time to revert to small and local brands that are closer to customers and are driven by their needs. Should we choose explicit ones like style or implicit ones like health and environment friendly?

Entrepreneurs, do you see an opportunity for creating local niche brands that deal in natural fabrics only? I know a few exist on Instagram and WhatsApp, especially from Jaipur. I hope some of them will scale up. Customised designs can give you an edge over mass products—don't you want to wear a kurta that is uniquely made for you, instead of one that matches the curtain material in someone's house?

PDS in Sri Lanka

This is with reference to the column Sri Lanka must adopt public distribution (August 25). Sri Lanka has been in a very difficult situation—politically, economically and socially. Ranil Wickremesinghe was entrusted with the presidency in hopes that he may turn the situation around with his governance. But the answer may lie in the writer's suggestion—Public Distribution System. This will help bring the prices of essentials under control, making the people of the island nation feel at ease.

Is it a hostile bid?

What's wrong if Gautam Adani wants to take over a television channel if the law of the land permits it? Why should it be called a hostile bid in the first instance? Saying that it is linked to the BJP government is uncalled for. But if the company law permits it without the knowledge and consent of the channel promoters, that's a big lacuna in the law. It's a faulty system that needs to be challenged in court.

Gehlot may be the answer

It is heartening to note that a non-Gandhi might lead the Congress. Ashok Gehlot is an astute politician, who embodies all the Congress ideals. His charm, accessibility and expertise may be the formula that could catapult the party back to its long-lost glory. The silver lining is his relatively cordial relationship with the G-23. The Gandhis must be supportive and not interfere in the way he steers the Congress ship.

Haribandhu Panigrahi, Tarbha

Family control

Amid all the speculations about Ashok Gehlot ascending the Congress throne, there are many possibilities—this may turn out to be a good decision or may topple the party. Either way, only time will tell. But whoever becomes president of the Congress party, be it Gehlot or someone else, the decision is in the Gandhi family's hands. The memory of Sitaram Kesri's tenure and subsequent ouster is still fresh in one's mind.

Concern about ageing

Apropos of Intergenerational bonding to combat ageism (August 26). The article has rightly emphasised the need for intergenerational bonding in fostering age-friendly societies. The government, private sector and civil society have important roles. They must organise community programmes to aid in the bonding between the old and the young.

By stating that G U Pope's translated version of Thirukkural is "de-spritualised", Tamil Nadu Governor R N Ravi seems to insinuate that Pope's intention was to de-spiritualise it, which may not be true. A lot of people have tried to translate it before and none has been able to do justice to it.

Drinking drops, but more men making it a habit, says survey

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @New Delhi

INDIANS are drinking less but more men are making alcohol a habit. Rising alcohol consumption among women is a myth even though more females are having country liquor, beer and other beverages, according to a study based on the National Family Health Survey (NFHS).

The study published in Oxford Academic journal claimed that drinking among Indian men has come down by 22.37 per cent compared to the previous NFHS-4 (2015-16) survey.

In the case of women, there has been a significant 39 per cent drop. At the same time, the proportion of men drinking daily has gone up by 24.19 per cent and those having it "once a week" has shot up by 7.24 per cent.

There has been a jump in women's use of country liquor, beer and stiff drinks. The number of women having 'tadi madi' — a local concoction — and wine has come down.

The findings cover drinking habits in India between 2016 and 2020 and based its findings on the two NFHS surveys of 4 and 5.

The study also claimed that "over the years, different surveys have reported that an overwhelmingly large proportion of Indians are classified as abstainers. As a corollary, the total alcohol consumed in India is consumed by a relatively smaller proportion of the population."

According to Dr Yatan Pal Singh Balhara, Additional Professor of Psychiatry, National Drug Treatment Centre (NDDTC), Department of Psychiatry, All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) and the lead author of the study, the survey findings contradict a popular notion that more women are drinking.

The study shows that the use of alcohol among women has decreased, and even daily drinkers among the female population are also less, he told this newspaper.

The survey said that increasing daily drinkers among men was a concern.

Although the NFHS does not capture data on alcohol use disorders, it can be inferred that given the pattern of drinking among men in India, those who report almost daily use might be at greater risk of or are likely to have developed problematic patterns of alcohol use, said the report, adding that there is a need to invest in both prevention-oriented and treatment-oriented interventions.

The response rate among men and women has been over 90 per cent in the survey.

According to a national study, the age of initiation to alcohol in India is 13.6 years.

The study also found that there was a reduction in the proportion of men across all ages who said they drink daily.

"The Global Status Report on Alcohol and Health 2018 by WHO estimated a 38 per cent increase in per capita alcohol consumption among individuals aged 15 years and above in India during 2010-17," said Dr Balhara.

WHO on Indian Drinking

According to the World Health Organisation (WHO), average alcohol consumption in India was 5.7 litres per person above the age of 15 per year in 2016, up from 4.3 litres in 2010. On per capita consumption, India is ranked 101 (with Moldova leading with 15.2 litres. In the immediate neighbourhood, the figure for Pakistan is 0.3 litres and China is 7.2 litres).

Alcohol Market

India is one of the fastest growing alcohol markets in the world. Rapid increase in urban population, sizable middle class population with rising spending power, and a sound economy are certain significant reasons behind increase in consumption of alcohol in India.

The Indian alcohol market is growing at a CAGR of 8.8% and it is expected to reach 16.8 billion liters of consumption by the year 2022. The popularity of wine and vodka is increasing at a remarkable CAGR of 21.8% and 22.8% respectively. India is the largest consumer of whiskey in the world and it constitutes about 60% of the IMFL market.

Though India is one of the largest consumers of alcohol in the world owing to its huge population, the per capita alcohol consumption of India is very low as compared to the Western countries. The per capita consumption of alcohol per week for the year 2016 was estimated at 147.3 ml and it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 7.5% to 227.1 ml according to estimates.

EXPRESS ILLUSTRATION

NO OF PEGS DOWN, NO OF DRINKERS UP

A new study has revealed that the amount of alcohol consumption has come down, but number of daily drinkers has increased

22.37 % dip in drinking has been noted among men

39.02 % drop noted in drinking among women

24.19 % increase in number of men drinking daily

7.14 % jump in number of men drinking once a week

There is a significant increase in the proportion of people drinking country liquor, beer, hard liquor and other alcoholic beverages among women.

There is a decrease in the proportion of women reporting use of "tadi madi" and wine.

Contrary to media reports, NFHS data shows drinking among women is declining

Judiciary not defined by single order: ex-CJI

Need of the hour is Indianisation of our legal system & adoption of practical realities of our society: Justice Ramana

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

Outgoing Chief Justice N V Ramana at the Supreme Court farewell in New Delhi on Friday | SUPREME COURT

Chief Justice of India N V Ramana in his farewell speech on Friday, while underscoring on "litigants" being focal points of any delivery system, said that the need of the hour was Indianisation of our legal system. Stressing on the legal system being colonial in nature, he advocated for adoption of practical realities of our society and localising the justice delivery system. "In the last 75 years, our jurisprudence has evolved considerably. Our judiciary is not defined by a single order or decision. Yes, at times, it fell short of peoples' expectations. But most of the times, it has championed the cause of the people. It was widely predicted that with A.K. Gopalan, the due process of law was history. But, this Court, in the case of Maneka Gandhi restored what was taken away earlier."

Similarly, ADM Jabalpur was seen as a death knell on personal liberty. Subsequently, the error stood rectified by a 9-Judges Bench in K. S. Puttaswamy. This institution never hesitated to remedy itself. Your hope upon the institution cannot be so weak that it is shattered with one perceived unfair judgment," he said. He also said that his constant endeavour was to make people aware about their rights and obligations as well as their Constitutional schemes, democratic values and institutions.

Ramana, who retired on August 26 after serving a tenure of over 16 months as the 48th CJI, tried to strengthen the institution and further the goal of justice with the help of his collegium judges and consulting judges by appointing 11 judges to the SC and 224 judges in the HCs. CJI also said that coordinated efforts from the government and bar and bench was needed to revamp the judicial system as no systematic assessment had taken place since Independence. "The issues faced by the judiciary cannot be looked at in isolation. The judiciary is independent when it comes to adjudication of cases, but with respect to finances or appointments it is still dependent on the dovernment. To coordinate and to get the cooperation from the Government, interaction is inevitable. But interaction does not mean influence," Ramana said.

Election freebies: SC refers 2013 judgment to 3-judge bench

NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court on Friday asked the three judge bench to consider whether its 2013 judgment which held that promises of freebies is not an electoral offense or corrupt practice needs to be overruled or not. SC's 2013 judgment which the bench of CJI NV Ramana, Justices Hima Kohli and CT Ravikumar asked a new 3 judge bench to consider also held that State distributing freebies in the form of colour TVs, laptops, mixer-grinders etc. to eligible and deserving persons was directly related to directive principles of the State Policy. Court also opined that there were some issues which required extensive hearing before passing any concrete orders. The issues which were flagged by the bench related to scope of judicial intervention with respect to ban of freebies and whether appointment of expert commission to put forth suggestions on the issue would serve any purpose. "Freebies may create a situation wherein the State Government cannot provide basic amenities due to lack of funds and the State is pushed towards imminent bankruptcy. In the same breath, we should remember that such freebies are extended utilizing tax payers money only for increasing the popularity of the party and electoral prospects," bench said. ENS

The students in the petitions also prayed to direct the states to admit them.

SC junks plea on Yogi hate speech

NEW DELHI: Granting relief to UP CM, Yogi Adityanath, the Supreme Court bench led by CJI NV Ramana on Friday rejected a plea challenging Allahabad HC's order of upholding UP Government's refusal to grant sanction for prosecuting CM in 2007 hate speech case. On August 20, 2018, SC had sought response from the State of Uttar Pradesh. Several incidents of violence were reported in Gorakhpur on January 27, 2007 after the alleged hate speech by Adityanath, who was then the BJP MP from Gorakhpur.

Zorawar tanks to strengthen northern front

MAYANK SINGH @New Delhi

Indigenously-built Light Tanks will be counter to enemy's state-of-art tanks

REALISING the protracted threat along the northern borders with China and the induction of the enemy's technologically "state-of-art" tanks, the Indian Army is pushing for "Project Zorawar". Zorawar will be the name of the Light Tanks which have been envisaged to be manufactured indigenously.

Sources in the security establishment said, "A lightweight agile platform with a high power to weight ratio with substantial firepower, protection, surveillance and communication capabilities is essential to provide the Indian Army the versatility to execute operations in different terrains against diverse threat and equipment profile of the adversaries. Armoured Fighting Vehicle-Indian Light Tank (AFV-ILT) offering capability for multiple employment options along with niche technologies is therefore an operational imperative."

Indian Light Tank is required to address sector specific operational requirements, the source added. "The Indigenous Indian Light Tank aptly named 'Zorawar' will be designed to operate from High Altitude Area, the marginal terrain to the Island territories and will be highly transportable for rapid deployment to meet any operational situation," he said. "Zorawar will have niche technologies to include Artificial Intelligence, Drone integration, Active Protection System, High Degree of Situational Awareness," he added.

Zorawar Singh Kahluria was the famed military general of Dogra King Gulab Singh and was adept at mountain warfare. New tanks will be named after him.

According to sources, in-principle approval has been granted. General Staff Quality Requirement (GSQR) is prepared for it and the project will be put up before the government to accord the approval, Acceptance of Necessity (AoN) in September.

With the standoff beginning in May 2020 and the Chinese People's Liberation Army mobilising more than 50,000 troops with their arms and equipment have triggered the defence planners to not only fill the gaps in the weapon profile but also to enhance the technology. But the plan is reposed in the prognosis of the situation which remains that, "this increased threat on the Northern Borders is likely to remain a threat in the foreseeable future too."

Army inducts indigenous swarm drone systems

Indian Army on Friday said in a statement, "Swarm Drones being inducted into the Mechanised Forces, duly embracing the niche and disruptive technologies, will provide an edge to Indian Army in meeting future security challenges." As per the sources, Indian Army has procured Swarm Drones from two Indian start-up companies. In addition, the Indian Army has also initiated a Make-II case, Autonomous Surveillance and Armed Drone Swarm (A-SADS) which includes a number of improvements and also a version for the High Altitude Area. Drone technology has proved to be a Force Multiplier in military operations as evident from its application in various recent conflicts across the world." ENS

Mirwaiz stopped from stepping out

Hurriyat leader is free, L-G had said recently

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

A week after Lt Governor Manoj Sinha said Mirwaiz Umar Farooq was a free man and there were no restriction on his movement, the detained Hurriyat leader and cleric was not allowed to offer Friday prayers and barred by the police from moving out of his residence. Mirwaiz is under house arrest since Aug. 4, 2019.

On Friday afternoon, Mirwaiz attempted to move out of his residence in a vehicle. However, the policemen deployed outside his house intercepted the vehicle near the gate and did not allow Mirwaiz to move out. A police officer told him that it is an issue of security and a decision would be taken after a review is completed.

"I have been in detention for three years. Now that the Lt Governor has said I am free, I want to visit Jamia Masjid to offer Friday prayers. People at Jamia Masjid are waiting for me," Mirwaiz told the police officials. "I am leaving the house only after the statement about my release has been made at the highest level. In fact, the Lt Governor had said that the policemen deployed around my house will facilitate my visit. Is this what you are facilitating?," he asked, adding, "I don't know why I have been detained for over three years."

Mirwaiz was placed under house arrest a day before the abrogation of Article 370 and 35A and bifurcation of Jammu and Kashmir into two Union Territories.

"You are not only violating my human rights but also violating my religious rights by not allowing me to offer Friday prayers," Mirwaiz said. "Nobody is allowed to meet me. I am unable to meet my close relatives and people. Many of my relatives died during these three years and I could not attend their funerals."

Meanwhile, at Jamia Masjid, people carried Mirwaiz's pictures and shouted slogans in his support.

Sinha had last week said tha Miwaiz has neither been arrested nor is under house detention and no restrictions are placed on his movement.

Modi makes BJP entrants 'feel at home'

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

It was a 'house warming party' with a difference. Prime Minister Narendra Modi, during his visit to Punjab on Friday, spent considerable time with ex-Congress leaders who have joined the BJP, making them "feel at home," sources said.

Modi also took feedback as he listened to them for 45 minutes after inaugurating the Homi Bhabha Cancer Hospital and Research Centre at Mullanpur in New Chandigarh.

Sources said after the event, Modi met a few BJP leaders in a tent put up outside the venue. The 19 leaders who met him had their names cleared by the PMO. The time spent by the PM with them was more than the duration of his presence at the scheduled event.

A former Congress minister who had joined the BJP before the assembly polls, Rana Gurmit Singh Sodhi from Ferozepur, apparently told the PM to revisit Ferozepur. Modi responded by saying that he wanted to go to Hussainiwala and that he would make plans for the Ferozepur visit.

When another new entrant Kewal Singh Dhillon raised farmers' issues, economic crisis in the state and the utilisation of the international cargo terminal in Amritsar, Modi told him he was aware of the economic stress in the state.

BJP leader Rajinder Mohan Singh Chinna from Amritsar talked about the cargo terminal at Amritsar International Airport never getting operational. "A functioning terminal can facilitate quick transport of vegetables and fruits," he informed the PM, adding that agro-based industry needs to be set up in the state and not far down south.

Former Punjab Congress chief Sunil Jakhar praised the PM on "freebies." "There are strict protocols about the PM's security and scheduled programmes. That is why we were not expecting this kind of interaction, where everyone was free to speak. He made us feel at home," said Jakhar.

"He listened to all of us patiently. He guided us to work for the party. He is very humble and has knowledge of the state," said another leader.

Among the others who took part in the meeting were Balbir Sidhu, Raj Kumar Verka, Arvind Khanna, Fateh Jung Bajwa, former SAD leader Didar Singh Bhatti, Union minister Som Prakash, and Punjab BJP chief Ashwani Sharma.

Political move? Baghel calls Shah home

EJAZ KAISER @Raipur

UNION Home Minister Amit Shah's Chhattisgarh visit on Saturday, his second after the Congress came to power in the state in 2018, assumes significance for the BJP that is gearing-up for the Assembly polls due next year in the state.

However, Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel took the occasion to invite Shah to the CM house to experience the local festival called Teeja-Pola.

"The chief minister has invited the Union home minister at his official residence to witness the rich cultural tradition of the state. It's a coincidence that Amit Shahji is arriving the same day when a major cultural event has been planned in the CM House. Keeping his invitation above party politics, the CM has apprised him on how the state connects with its own culture values and local festivals," Congress leader Sushil Anand Shukla said.

During the last three-and-a-half years, the Baghel-led Congress government has fostered local culture and tradition in an attempt to bring out the fervour of regional pride. He has adopted the annual practice of celebrating local festivals like Teeja, Hareli, Govardhan puja and Pola at his official residence and also declared holidays on these days.

According to political observer Dr Parivesh Mishra, amid the intended public display of bonhomie between Baghel and Shah, there seems to be a desire on the Chhattisgarh chief minister's part to blunt the acrimony displayed by BJP leaders in their public utterances, as seen recently during the political rally organised by the saffron party's youth wing in Raipur.

There is no official confirmation on whether Shah will attend any programme at the chief minister's house.

Shah has three major programmes lined up in Raipur. Besides inaugurating a building of the National Investigation Agency, he will attend a seminar on 'Modi@20: Dreams Meeting Delivery', and chair a meeting of BJP leaders at the party's state office.

The last visit by Shah to the state was in April 2021 after a Maoist attack left 22 security personnel dead along the Sukma-Bijapur border.

Flyover demolition to take place next month

Demolition of the Vivekananda Road flyover, a part of which had collapsed in March 2016, claiming 26 lives, will be done in next two weeks, officials of the Kolkata Metropolitan Development Authority (KMDA) said. After the demolition, engineers from Kolkata Municipal Corporation would be asked to repair some of the roads that have remained shut for almost a year. The flyover stretch between Malapara and Posta will be pulled down in the final phase, a KMDA official said. Work on bringing down the 2.2 km flyover began in June last year, and since then several stretches have remained cordoned off.

120 Kolkata roads to be repaired before Puja

The Kolkata Municipal Corporation (KMC) has received from the police a list of 120 roads that are damaged and must be repaired before Durga Puja. KMC engineers are inspecting the roads and drawing up a plan for repairs, said an official. Civic authorities said they aim to complete the work by Sept 20, 10 days before the festival. "Five days ago, we received a list of 120, such as Rashbehari Avenue, Dargah Road Central Avenue and MG Road," said an official. The civic body will not fill the potholes by simply pouring bituminous hot mix, but by digging the affected parts a few inches and laying a bituminous layer.

Illegal mining: HC seeks Meghalaya coal inventory within seven days

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE Meghalaya High Court has given a week to the state government to report about the coal inventory lying by the roadside and dumps.

The direction comes amid allegations that coal is being extracted despite a ban on it by the National Green Tribunal (NGT) as well as the Supreme Court. The coal traders have allegedly continued with the business under the ruse that they are transporting coal that was mined before 2016.

The state government said it has no idea about the exact quantity of coal mined before 2016 which has to be disposed of. An interim report of a court-constituted committee, headed by Justice (retd) BP Katakey, said the previously-mined (till 2016) coal "is lying as per NGT inventory" by the sides of public roads at 24 places. Advocate general Amit Kumar submitted that the previously-mined coal may be lying in dumps numbering 1,500 or more.

A bench of Chief Justice Sanjib Banerjee and Justices W Diengdoh and HS Thangkhiew said measuring coal lying by the roadside may not require any rocket science technology.

The court directed the state government to measure the coal – if required with the help of the Coal India Limited (CIL) – at each site within a week.

"Whatever be the number of dumps, the state has to stand by the particulars furnished before Justice Katakey… It is imperative that the coal lying at such places be disposed of in accordance with law and upon following the pollution control measures pertaining thereto as expeditiously as possible," the court ordered.

The court sniffed a "game" being played where the government expects CIL to carry out the measurements. The latter says it has formed a panel but has not told the court how the measurement is being done.

Coal mining is a lucrative business in Meghalaya. The state government denies any coal mining but there have been tragedies claiming lives since the NGT enforced the ban in 2014. A few days ago, a labourer died while another was injured in a coal mine mishap.

Yogi's OSD dies while saving nilgai

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

MOTI Lal Singh, 65, who was serving as Officer on Special Duty at UP Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath's camp office in Gorakhpur, died in Basti while on way to Lucknow from Gorakhpur late on Friday night.

Singh, a retired PCS officer, was accompanied by his wife Veena Singh when his SUV driver Santosh Gupta lost control over the vehicle and rammed it into a tree while trying to save a nilgai, police sources said.

Veena was seriously injured and referred to BRD Medical College in Gorakhpur. Gupta was discharged after first-aid.

Yogi condoled Singh's death and directed officials to ensure proper medical attention to Veena.

Oz buys Indian diesel, ATF, gifts them to Lanka

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

INDIA has facilitated diplomatic clearance for a Sri Lankan Navy ship to pick up fuel purchased by Australia from India. This was under Australia's initiative to provide fuel for Sri Lanka's Air Force and Navy — to support regional security, specially human smuggling.

Sri Lanka deployed an Advanced Offshore Patrol Vessel to lift the diesel and aviation turbine fuel (ATF) stock from India to its country.

"Australia is pleased to be working with India to provide fuel to Sri Lankan Navy and Air Force. It will help our longstanding cooperation against transnational crime to continue. As Indian Ocean neighbours, all three share a common commitment to preserving regional security," Australian High Commissioner to Sri Lanka, Paul Stephens said.

As per the tripartite agreement, Lanka received about 1.1 million litres of diesel and 50,000 litres of ATF. "Since they are Quad partners, it worked well for Australia to buy fuel from India for Sri Lanka," said sources. Last month, Australia intercepted four maritime people-smuggling attempts from Lanka. All 125 on board were sent back to Lanka.

Festive offer: Mamata makes move to corner BJP

PRANAB MONDAL @Kolkata

WEST Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee's announcement of increase in monetary assistance to Durga Puja organisers seems to be a case of caging two birds with one festival. While the grant may divert focus from the ongoing corruption charges against two party leaders during the festive reason, it may also succeed in blunting BJP's accusations against her of not doing enough to promote Durga Puja.

Mamata has already announced a mega procession to be held on Sept. 1 to celebrate Unesco's recognition of the festival with a heritage tag. The festival starts on Oct. 1.

This year, Mamata has announced financial assistance of ₹60,000 to each of the 40,000 puja organizers, forcing the cash-strapped government to shell out ₹240 crore. Last year, the amount was ₹50,000.

"The political message was evident at the outset when Mamata met puja organisers and announced more financial assistance to them. The chief minister began her address by firing off a jibe at the religious polarising campaign by the BJP ahead of the last year's Assembly elections, accusing her government of not allowing Hindu festivals to be celebrated. Mamata's recent announcements are her reply to the saffron camp's allegation," said a TMC leader, referring to BJP's aggressive campaign before the 2021 Assembly polls, when Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Home Minister Amit Shah accused Mamata of restricting celebration of Durga Puja and Saraswati Puja.

"We are now facing the heat of people's ire over the issue of arrests of former minister Partha Chatterjee and party's strongman Anubrata Mondal on corruption charges, the TMC leader said, adding, "Durga Puja is the biggest festival of Bengal, and BJP tried its best to use it as a political tool. But this time, Mamata didi has played a smart card."

BJP's state president Sukanta Majumdar said Mamata announcement of offering more financial assistance to organisers is mere hoodwinking of common people. "She wants to divert people's attention from corruption charges against her leaders. But it will not happen. People will give a reply in the coming elections," he said.

Mamata's announcement of starting the festivities from Sept. 1 is also been seen as an attempt to divert attention from the corruption issue.

In the meeting with the puja committees, Mamata emphasised upon how the occasion involved all sections of the society and how the organisers plan through the year. "She made it clear that BJP's campaign is nothing but propaganda against Bengal," said another TMC leader.

Punjab vigilance asks all depts to share details on 'expat' officials

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

THE Punjab Vigilance Bureau wants all government wings to furnish details on officials who have permanent residency abroad or those with a Green Card.

The state government had recently sacked an official of the civil supplies department for concealing the fact that he had acquired permanent residency in Canada 15 years back.

Seven years back the VB in its report to the government had stated that some 130 gazetted and non-gazetted officers had obtained PR or Green Card in violation of service rules. However, no action was taken then.

The Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department has dismissed deputy director Rakesh Kumar Singla for hiding his residency status. He was handed a chargesheet in 2017. The charges were proved on Jan 29, 2019.

Punjab Consumer Affairs minister Lal Chand Kataruchakk said the official had violated the Punjab Civil Services Rules, 1970.

"I have instructed officials to write to all departments to share details with the bureau about the officials who have obtained permanent residency or have green-cards of foreign countries. While serving as a government employee, one cannot be a citizen of another country,'' said a senior VB officer.

Sources said the May 2015 VB report to the government listed about 130 such officers, including an IAS and two PCS officers. "Most such staff were from the education and agriculture departments. Many departments chose not to revert on the VB report," said a VB officer.

In March 2006, then joint secretary (personnel) wrote to all departments saying "references are received from various departments seeking clarifications on granting a 'no-objection certificate' to government officers/officials for seeking emigration to foreign countries."

Citing a Central government policy, the letter said no government officer or official should apply for or seek emigration to any country as long as one is in government service. "The question of issuing a no-objection certificate to a government employee who wishes to migrate to a foreign country, therefore, does not arise. The same rule is also a part of the All India Service Conduct Rules 1968, added in 1993," said an officer.

The Punjab Vigilance Bureau in its 2015 report referred to this letter while listing 130 officials having permanent residency abroad.

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

ESSAR GROUP on Friday announced one of the biggest post-pandemic merger & acquisition (M&A) deals for $ 2.4 billion (₹19,000 crore) to sell its ports business to steel magnate LN Mittal-led Arcelor Mittal Nippon Steel Ltd.

In a statement, Essar said it has signed definitive agreements with ArcelorMittal Nippon Steel for certain ports and power infrastructure assets which are primarily captive to Hazira (Gujarat) steel plant operations.

With this deal, Essar said it will conclude its planned asset monetisation programme and complete the debt repayment plan of $25 billion (₹2,00,000 crore) with the Indian banking sector being almost fully repaid. The deal also envisages a 50-50 Joint Venture partnership, for building a 4 MTPA LNG terminal at Hazira, Gujarat, between Essar and ArcelorMittal. This will intensify the competition of the JV with India's largest port operator-Adani Ports and SEZ.

Rewant Ruia, Director, Essar Ports & Terminals Limited, said "With this deal, which yields a multifold return on our investments, Essar Ports & Terminals has unlocked value for all its stakeholders and will continue to focus on building new and modern core infrastructure assets in India and overseas." Prashant Ruia, Director, Essar Capital, said "Essar is now repositioned for growth and resurgence. 'No Sebi nod needed for NDTV stake'

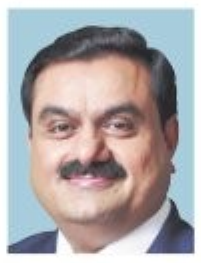
ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

AS the corporate battle hots up between the promoters of NDTV and that of Adani Enterprises (AEL) over the control of the media group, AEL on Friday said NDTV doesn't need the Securities and Exchange Board of India's (Sebi's) nod to transfer the shares of its promoter entity -- RRPR Holdings -- to VCPL, which is now owned by the Adani group.

AEL in an exchange filing said contentions raised by RRPR are baseless, legally untenable and devoid of merit and RRPR is bound to perform its obligation immediately and allot the equity shares as specified in the 'Warrant Exercise Notice'.



The statement by Adanis comes a day after New Delhi Television Ltd (NDTV) said Sebi had barred NDTV's founder-promoters for 2 years (expiring Nov 26, 2022) from dealing in their shares 'directly or indirectly' and that RRPR can't convert its warrants, now owned by VCPL, into equity. It added that Adani requires an approval from the Sebi to advance its acquisition effort. "RRPR is not a party to the Sebi order dated November 27, 2020. Consequently, the restraints as pointed out by RRPR in paragraphs 111(b) and 112 of the Sebi order don't apply to RRPR," Adanis argued. It said the Warrant exercise notice has been issued by VCPL under a contract that is binding on RRPR. RRPR is, therefore, obligated to comply with its contractual obligations" AEL said on Friday.

It added that performance of obligations by RRPR pursuant to the 'Warrant Exercise Notice' will not result in violation of the Sebi order as there is no 'direct or indirect' dealing in any securities of Prannoy Roy or Radhika Roy (founder-promoters) pursuant to the exercise of warrants by VCPL and allotment of shares by RRPR. VCPL, therefore, doesn't agree with RRPR that prior written approval from Sebi is required for allotment of shares to VCPL on exercise of warrants, said the statement by Adanis.

Enforcement Directorate searches crypto exchange CoinSwitch offices

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

AFTER crypto platform WazirX and Bengaluru-based Yellow Tune Technologies, the Enforcement Directorate has searched offices of crypto exchange CoinSwitch Kuber for allegedly flouting Foreign Exchange Management Act(FEMA) norms.

According to reports, the ED is looking at many potential violations under FEMA and since it did not receive the desired cooperation from the crypto exchange, it conducted searches on the official premises. A source confirmed the reports of searches at CoinSwitch offices and said that the law enforcement agency had summoned the exchange a month ago.

CoinSwitch Kuber is one of the many crypto exchanges where the ED has been conducting searches. When asked about it, the exchange's spokesperson told TNIE that they received queries from various government agencies.

"Our approach has always been that of transparency. Crypto is an early-stage industry with a lot of potential and we continuously engage with all stakeholders," the spokesperson added.

Founded in 2017 by Ashish Singhal, Govind Soni, and Vimal Sagar Tiwari, and backed by investors including Andreessen Horowitz (a16z), Tiger Global, Sequoia Capital India, Ribbit Capital, Paradigm, and Coinbase Ventures, the exchange has over 18 million registered users.

Earlier this month, the ED had conducted searches on WazirX and said it freezed bank assets worth ₹64.67 crore. During the probe, ED found Zanmai Labs had created a web of agreements with Crowdfire Inc USA, Binance, Zettai Singapore to obscure the ownership of the crypto exchange. It found that a large amount of funds was diverted by the fintech firms to buy crypto assets and laundered abroad.

See 3-fold growth in books, merchandise, home portfolio: Flipkart

SAMIKSHA GOEL @ New Delhi

E-COMMERCE retailer Flipkart has seen a three-fold growth in books, general merchandise and home (BGMH) portfolio.

Kanchan Mishra. Senior Director - FMCG, home & general merchandise at Flipkart told TNIE that the e-commerce giant expects these categories to grow and be a strong customer acquisition engine for the company.

Mishra, however, notes that despite this growth, e-commerce penetration for most of these categories remains in single digits, much lower than the country average and even lower as compared to global benchmarks as well where these categories are in strong double digits across developed economies, implying strong headroom for growth.

She adds that the e-commerce penetration overall in the metros is much stronger and tier 2 is still catching up. The width of selection sold has doubled year-on-year, says Mishra, which means that customers are looking for more variety and a wider range of products. "We have seen an increase in the range of price points consumers buy across. Consistent with India, value continues to be the core but we have seen consumers diversify, upsell and buy across price points."

Categories like personal care, food and nutrition, auto accessories, home furnishings have a retail opportunity of over $10 billion, Mishra notes, adding that this makes them high focus categories for Flipkart, given the scale of the business.

The online retail giant is actively working in the toys category, according to Mishra. "We have activated over 4,000 products in the last year or so and seen very good traction. There are trends like STEM toys which are really coming to speed," she adds. Clean beauty, cruelty free products have also emerged as a trend clearly. Healthy snacking is another trend that has stayed post-pandemic, says Mishra.

JAPAN

TOKYO AUGUST CORE CONSUMER PRICES RISE AT FASTEST PACE IN 8 YEARS

Core consumer prices in Japan's capital Tokyo rose in August at their fastest pace in nearly eight years, as inflationary pressures broadened due to higher fuel and raw material costs. The core consumer price index for Tokyo gained 2.6% in August, above the median market forecast for a 2.5% rise in a Reuters poll. The pace of increase, which followed a 2.3% gain in the previous month, was the fastest since October, 2014. The data heightens the chance nationwide consumer prices will continue to rise in coming months, though the pace of gains has remained modest compared with other major economies. The world's third-largest economy saw nationwide core CPI rise 2.4% in July from a year earlier, driven by fuel and raw material prices and straining households yet to see significant wage gains. While inflation has now exceeded the Bank of Japan's 2% target for four straight months, the central bank is still expected to keep monetary conditions ultra loose for the time being.

THAILAND

HIKES MINIMUM WAGE FOR FIRST TIME IN OVER 2 YRS

Thailand raised its daily minimum wage for the first time in more than two years on Friday, the labour ministry said, as it seeks to help workers cope with rising living costs and the economic impact of Covid-19. A committee made up of government representatives, companies and labour groups agreed to raise wages by an average of 5.02% from Oct 1, officias said in a statement. The minimum wage was last hiked in January 2020, by 1.6%-1.8%. The exact rates differ slightly between regions with the three most industrialised provinces — Chonburi, Rayong and Phuket — and the capital Bangkok, at the top end of a 328 baht and 354 baht (US$9.11-US$9.84) range. The raise makes Thailand's monthly minimum wage — at 9,840 to 10,620 baht (US$273.33-US$295.00) — among the highest of its peers in Southeast Asia with such measures. By comparison, Vietnam, a regional manufacturing base, has a monthly minimum wage of between 3.25 million dong and 4.68 million dong.

INDONESIA

CONSIDERING HIKING FUEL PRICES AS MUCH AS 40%

Indonesia may raise subsidised fuel prices by 30-40% to manage fiscal pressure from a ballooning subsidy budget, lawmakers from President Joko Widodo's ruling coalition government told Reuters on Friday. Eddy Soeparno, a member of the National Mandate Party and deputy head of Parliament's energy panel, said he obtained the information in a closed-door parliamentary meeting with state oil company Pertamina this week. Indonesia has tripled its 2022 energy subsidy allocation from its original budget to 502 trillion rupiah (S$47 billion) - about 16% of total spending plans - amid rising global oil prices and a depreciating rupiah. The government has said even more money would be needed for subsidies this year if fuel prices were not raised. The option Pertamina preferred was to raise 90-octane petrol prices to 10,000 rupiah a litre from 7,650 rupiah; 92-octane petrol to 16,000 rupiah a litre from 12,500 rupiah; and diesel to 7,200 rupiah per litre from 5,150 rupiah, he said.

DoT receives applications from 32 companies for telecom PLI scheme

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Department of Telecommunication (DoT) have so far received applications from 32 companies, including 22 MSMEs, for the telecom equipment and design production-linked incentive (PLI) scheme

According to the DoT, so far 31 firms are manufacturing telecom equipment under the scheme. The scheme was launched in 2021. To promote the entire value-chain in telecom manufacturing, design-led PLI was launched in June 2022. It provided additional incentives of 1% over and above the existing incentives for products that are designed in India.

Nearly ₹4,000 crore from the total amount of ₹12,195 crore was set aside for providing incentives to the manufacturers, it said. The application window was open from June 21 till August 25, 2022. "India is poised to emerge as a design and manufacturing hub for telecom and networking equipment," said the statement.

Lean grade iron ore policy likely to be mandatory

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

POLICY related to usage of lean grade iron ores will be made mandatory for the mining owners and captive users, failing in compliance with the new norms may result into punitive action, as per sources.

Non-compliance of the policy norms may lead to cancellation of mining lease. The draft paper has been issued for public consultation and it will be notified, the sources said.

As per a mining ministry panel, low-grade iron should be upgraded to high grade iron ore through beneficiation and upgradation instead of keeping it is as it. This has been recommended to protect the environment and minimise the energy requirement in downstream processes to make steel. Most industry associations are against such punitive policy as they are looking for some incentives so that beneficiation becomes economical viable, which is not the case at present. The government had set up an inter-departmental committee to suggest methods to ensure better utilisation of lean grade iron ore resources. Recently, steel secretary Sajay Kumar Singh on Wednesday emphasised on the need for beneficiation for the proper the utilisation of the rising percentage of low-grade iron ore. He stated that there has been an increase in lean grade iron ore over a period of few years. Meanwhile, Jyotiraditya M Scindia , minister for steel and aviation, in an event organised by Indian Institute of Metals, Delhi Chapter also stressed upon the circular economy for conservation of resources.

"The metal sector needs to be at the forefront of the circular economy model in view of its pervasive applications, besides the inherent potential of metals to be amenable and adaptable to business models following 6R principles of Reduce, Recycle, Reuse, Recover, Redesign and Remanufacture," the minister said. "Consensus seems to have emerged across the globe that a circular economy is the only way towards conservation of resources and the metal sector needs to be at the forefront ," Scindia added.

BOLLYWOOD

'Poor storytelling, OTT drowning Hindi cinema industry'

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

POOR storytelling, decline in single screens and rise of OTT platforms is drowning Hindi cinema Industry aka Bollywood. In a note, SBI Ecowrap cited several factors as to what is working for the South cine industry and that not working for Bollywood.

For example, 62% of the single screen theatres are in South India, with North India having a share of only 16% followed by west with 10% of all single screen cinema halls. This means the affordability quotient is much higher in south than in north.

"The Hindi film industry aka Bollywood, after decades of storytelling that has made us elated and exuberant or sad and thoughtful at times seems to be at an inflection point unlike any other disruption it has faced before," said Soumya Kanti Ghosh, Group Chief Economic Adviser, State Bank of India (SBI).

Citing the example of content in Bollywood movies, Ghosh explains that the average rating of 43 Hindi movies since Jan 2021 was just 5.9 in the IMDb (Internet Movie Database), way below the 7.3 rating of 18 Hindi dubbed movies. According to Ghosh, a simple regression exercise indicates that an extra one point IMDB rating leads to Rs 17 crore more collections," Two recent releases from the YRF Production - Samrat Prithviraj and Samshera - were shunned by critics as well as the public and have abysmal IMDB ratings of 5.9 and 4.9, respectively. Even Aamir Khan starrer Laal Singh Chaddha, produced by Aamir Khan Productions and Viacom18 Studios, has a rating of 5. Needless to say, all these three movies are cited as disasters in the domestic Box Office. While YRF's two flicks theatrical run is over, Laal Singh Chaddha's worldwide gross now stands at ₹126 crore against its reported budget of ₹180 crore.

Its domestic collection is yet to surpass ₹60 crore. Movie producers also make money by selling overseas rights, music rights, satellite rights, OTT rights among other things. However, in cases of big-flops, they fail to recover their cost of production even after selling these rights.

INDIAN DUET TO THE FOUR

Shuttlers Satwik & Chirag enter semis, become first men's pair to medal at World C'ships

ANMOL GURUNG @ Chennai

SATWIKSAIRAJ Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty are making a custom of creating history. The ever-evolving doubles exponents continue to raise the bar every time. On Friday, the World No 7 scripted another high by becoming the first Indian men's pair to medal at the BWF World Championships. They are the second doubles partnership from the country after Ashwini Ponnappa and Jwala Gutta to bag a medal at the coveted event.

Bringing high energy on the court in Tokyo, where the ongoing edition is being held, the duo were on song against reigning champions and No 2 seeds Takuro Hoki and Yugo Kobayashi. Displaying nerves of steel, they were sharp and displayed a good all-round game to come out on top.

Sporting a bandana, Chirag showed ninja-like reflexes in front of the net while Satwik landed some heavy smashes when the need arose from the back to make their opponents sweat. The level of understanding between the two, who have been playing as a pair since early 2016, was a delight to watch.

After a strong start, the Indians had taken a handy lead and they always looked a step ahead of their rivals. The Japanese pair, as was expected, did show some fight towards the end and also had a couple of opportunities to pocket the opener. But Chirag and Satwik would just not yield. Despite intense pressure, the duo remained unruffled and managed to get out of jail.

The locals showed why they were the reigning champs in the second game and levelled. But Chirag and Satwik didn't hit the panic button. They embraced the moment to replay what they had done in the opening game. The Japanese pair were always chasing and tried to close the gap. But Satwik and Chirag never let them find their rhythm and eventually coasted to the finish line. The final score read 24-22, 15-21, 21-14 in favour of the Indians.

This is a huge return for the doubles duo who had put aside Commonwealth Games celebrations (they had won men's doubles gold) to focus on this event. "From the start itself I was telling myself, 'Don't be satisfied with CWG, you have the World Championships as well'. Once I'm done with the Worlds, maybe I can go celebrate, no matter how I play. But I want to go all-in in this upcoming Worlds," Satwiksairaj had told this newspaper just a few days after their historic gold in Birmingham.

That unforgiving attitude, hunger and drive to constantly improve is something that has seen their stocks grow. The duo had started the year with their first Super 500 title at the India Open. In the Thomas Cup, they had played a pivotal role in helping India do the unthinkable and return with gold. And that was followed by the aforementioned CWG success.

Having a strong figure in the form of Mathias Boe, an Olympic medallist, as a coach has also elevated their game. Boe, a champion operator during his playing days, has made subtle additions to their game, their lifestyle. "During my junior days, I could go out and eat whatever I wanted. Now, I'm realising that I don't have that luxury. Small things make a huge difference. If I go out, I'll be tired and that could affect my game," Satwik had said, when asked about the noticeable changes under Boe.

Those small steps, often overlooked by many, are making Satwik and Chirag take giant leaps.

On Saturday, they'll be intent on going the distance. But a stiff test awaits. They'll be up against Malaysian pair of Aaron Chia and Soh Wooi Yik, who are sixth seeds. History is against the Indians as they have never beaten them in five previous meetings.

The odds might be stacked against them, but it would be unwise to rule the Indian pair out.

ARJUN & DHRUV LOSE

Friday was a massive learning curve for MR Arjun and Dhruv Kapila, the other Indian men's doubles pair. Up against three-time champs and No 2 seeds Mohammad Ahsan and Hendra Setiaman of Indonesia, Arjun and Dhruv just couldn't get going. They lacked the energy, especially in the opening game, and eventually lost the match 21-8, 21-14. In the men's singles, HS Prannoy's gritty run came to an end in the quarterfinals. Prannoy, who had beaten former World No 1 Kento Momota and India No 1 Lakshya Sen en route quarters stage, lost 21-19, 6-21, 18-21 against China's Zhao Jun Peng.

Asia Cup: India's new-found approach set to be tested

VENKATA KRISHNA B @ Chennai

THE setting couldn't have been more apt. After political and economical turmoil meant Sri Lanka could no longer host the Asia Cup, the organisers happily moved the caravan to the United Arab Emirates – Dubai & Sharjah to be precise – to host a tournament that still creates frenzy in the sub-continent.

While getting huge crowds in the sub-continent is a given – irrespective of the host and the playing teams – nothing quite fits the bill like the middle-east. After all, it is the place where the concept of Asia Cup began in 1984 and still continues to be a popular tournament for the sub-continent's cricket-craving public. Sure, the temperature, is set to test the players and the fans alike – this is summer in the UAE — but irrespective of which team plays, a capacity crowd can be expected in the evenings to add more glitter to the contest.

One of the big reasons why the tournament still remains hugely popular in these parts is it has been a closely-fought tournament. Nothing establishes it more than the fact that even Bangladesh have made it to the finals thrice.

The last time the Asia Cup was held in the UAE, Sri Lanka didn't even make it to the main round – the Super Four. This time — with the T20 World Cup in the horizon — the Asia Cup has gone back to the shortest format for only second time in its history. And in conditions bound to assist the spinners, there is an element of unpredictability. Which is why even Afghanistan won't be pushovers and given how Bangladesh's form has been off-late, they have a good chance of piping them to the Super Four stage.

That said, India with all the resources they have, once again start as favourites as Rohit Sharma & Co face their biggest test to their new found approach post their 2021 World Cup debacle. But the road isn't going to be as smooth.

In 2018, they were stretched by Hong Kong and tied Afghanistan (only match in this event that has finished as a tie so far). While they easily steamrolled Pakistan twice, Bangladesh nearly walked away with the title, taking the final to the last ball.

And four years later, a lot has changed, but the six opponents remain the same. Given it is T20 format, there is always space for any team to upstage the other, meaning unless each team brings out their A-game, there is always going to be an element of surprise.

For India, this tournament will be a dress rehearsal for the World Cup – although conditions are totally different – especially from a batting point of view. In KL Rahul and Virat Kohli, they have two players who are yet to fully embrace the new-found aggressive approach. Due to injuries and breaks, the duo have not played much since the T20 World Cup, with Rahul playing only two matches. "We have spoken about it much earlier too when I was in the team, just after the World Cup," Rahul said about adapting to the new approach. "We spoke on how as a batting unit we have to be more aggressive and put pressure on bowlers and play with lot of authority and freedom. In IPL, I tried to play with the same approach and be consistent. I have played a few games and that is a challenge for me. But everyone has embraced what the captain wants," Rahul said in a press conference.

For a team that struggled to put good totals on board while batting first, India have gone about addressing it and in a tournament where dew could play a role, Rahul revealed India are better prepared this time. "In big tournaments, even in the past, it is not just us, be it for any team, if toss plays a big role, that is what it is and you have to be prepared. And that is what we as a team have been trying to do as well after the World Cup, in bilaterals we have challenged ourselves where if we win the toss, we have chosen to bat first to prepare for big tournaments like this. That gives us bit more confidence because we have done it for over a period of time," Rahul added.

NEW DELHI: Andhra Pradesh Football Association president Gopalkrishna Kosaraju on Friday withdrew his nomination for the treasurer's post in the AIFF elections slated for September 2.

FIFA lifts AIFF suspension, big relief for India

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

Indian football can heave a collective sigh of relief. After days of discussions between sports ministry and the international football federation (FIFA) and subsequent Supreme Court intervention, the suspension on All India Football Federation (AIFF) has been lifted on Friday.

The FIFA had banned India through a late communication on August 14 and said it was ineligible to host the Under 17 Women's World Cup. That setback that sent the sports ministry on a overdrive to save the tournament whose build-up had already begun.

In a late communication, the FIFA said, "The Bureau of the FIFA Council has decided to lift the suspension that was imposed on the AIFF due to undue third-party influence."

This will mean India will now be eligible to host the U-17 women's World Cup scheduled to begin on October 11.

The world football body had banned India because a court-appointed Committee of Administrators were governing the AIFF and had not paid heed to FIFA's various objections while re-drafting the constitution. One of the sticky points was the 36 eminent players who were made part of the electoral college with voting rights. This was done after the SC accepted CoA's suggestion and draft constitution on August 3.

The ministry had entered into various rounds of discussions with the FIFA and finally, through the Solicitor General of India approached the highest court to request modification in the order so that the U17 Women's World Cup be held in India as per plan. Ministry informed the Supreme Court about FIFA's demands and said it wanted the Committee of Administrators (CoA) to be repealed in full and the AIFF administration takes charge of its daily affairs.

On August 22, the SC heard the matter and passed a modified order repealing the CoA saying day to day matter will be handled by AIFF administrators led by its general secretary.

FIFA on Friday said, "The decision was taken after FIFA received confirmation that the mandate of the committee of administrators that was set up to assume the powers of the AIFF Executive Committee had been terminated and that the AIFF administration had regained full control of the AIFF's daily affairs."

"As a consequence, the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup 2022 scheduled to take place on 11-30 October 2022 will be held in India as planned," it said.

Chennai Open winner Manu aspires to be regular on Asian Tour

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Chennai

AFTER sinking the easiest of birdie putts, Manu Gandas removed his cap and looked set to move to the next hole. Only the chorus of claps informed that Gandas had won the third edition of the PGTI Chennai Open.

In the end, it was a no contest. Opening on Friday as joint leader with Sri Lanka's N Thangaraja, the Delhi golfer returned a bogey-free five-under 67 to finish four strokes (20-under for the tournament) clear of Thangaraja. After the trophy presentation, Gandas explained that he has never been one for big celebration. "I don't really speak much," he said. "I like to keep to myself."

The Gandas story merits focus because among the field, he is a relatively new face in the winner's circle. He turned pro in 2015 but had to wait for his first win till 2021 (Golconda Masters in Telangana, September 2021). Since then, he has won three times, all of it coming in 2022. In terms of titles, he's the winningest player currently. He also stands out because of his consistency. Of the nine tournaments, he has won three, finished in the top five two other times and made the cut on all occasions. No wonder that he's third on the PGTI's Order of Merit list.

But why did it take a few years for him to crack the code? He explained. "Coming into it (after becoming a professional), I expected too much of myself so I pushed too hard. So, I just started to back off for a bit and let the process do its thing." However, there is no one tournament that led him to believe he belonged at the this level. "Even in the not so good years, I used to appear on the leaderboard on a few occasions. I developed some sort of consistency a few years ago. So, I knew the game was there, it was going to be a matter of time."

Gandas, who used to be a judoka (his siblings are gold winners in the sport at the national level) in his earlier days before switching to golf, like most Indian golfers, aspires to be a regular on the Asian Tour and beyond. "I don't have a full card there this year, going forward I want to be."

On his four days at the TNGF golf course, he did set a target but, interestingly, it wasn't about finishing first. "The competition was going to be with myself," he said. "I had a target of finishing 20-under. It wasn't clicking for me last week (Coimbatore)," he said. "But I just continued with my process, knowing it would come for me."

He achieved what he set out to do. Finishing 20-under for the week. His reward? A third title of the year and ₹6 lakh in prize money.

Four CWG medallists including Anshu to miss wrestling Worlds selection trials

FIROZ MIRZA @Chennai

FOUR Commonwealth Games medallists including Anshu Malik, who had bagged 57kg silver, will not participate in the selection trials scheduled at the SAI centre in Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh on August 29. The trials are being organised to select the national team for the World Championships scheduled in Belgrade, Serbia, from September 10 to 18.

The selection trials for the male wrestlers will be held the next day in New Delhi. The other wrestlers, who will skip the trials, are Pooja Gehlot (50kg), Divya Kakran (68kg) and Pooja Sihag (76kg). All of them bagged a bronze each in their respective weight categories in Birmingham. The Rio bronze medallist, Sakshi Malik, who had clinched gold in 62kg at the CWG, is also not a certainty and a final call on her participation is likely on Saturday.

"Anshu sustained injured her left elbow during the Asian Championships. She had been advised surgery but she decided to compete at the CWG and then undergo an operation," Dharamvir Malik, Anshu's father, told this daily. The wrestler, who had become the first woman from the country to clinch silver at the Worlds last year, underwent surgery on August 18 and is likely to stay out of competitive wrestling for at least two and half months.

"Dinshaw Pardiwala, the Mumbai doctor who specialises in sports, operated her elbow. The doctor told us that a few broken pieces of bone were stuck in her elbow joint and they were hindering the movement of the elbow. She is expected to get back on the mat in one and a half months and will take another month to get ready for international bouts. Maybe she can make a comeback in December," added father.

Gehlot and Sihag too are injured. While Gehlot is said to be nursing an elbow injury, Sihag is having a back problem.

Break for Divya

Divya, however, is taking a small break from wrestling. "She is not physically fit for a big event like Worlds soon after competing at the CWG. She also wants a break from competition to recharge. Though she sustained an injury in Birmingham, it's not the reason for her to skip the trials. She is preparing for the National Games," Neena, Divya's sparring partner, said. Even Sakshi is doubtful for the trials. "We will confirm it by Saturday," Satyawart Kadian, Sakshi's husband, told this daily.

Tough competition

Despite big names withdrawing from the trials, head coach Jitendra Yadav believes the field will not be depleted as a lot of young wrestlers are expected to give a tough fight to their senior counterparts. "Antim (Panghal) is already a wrestler to look out for especially after becoming the first woman from the country to win gold at the U-20 Worlds. She lost on criteria against Vinesh Phogat (53kg) in May during the CWG selection trials. This time too, the bout between the two is expected to go down the wire. Neelam, who lost to Pooja in 50kg, and Priyanshi Prajapati will make the competition tough in the weight category. Sarita Mor, who in 2022 had become the only Indian woman wrestler to win four medals (2 gold, 1 silver and 1 bronze) at the Asian Championships by finishing third in the 59kg bronze, will compete in 57kg. Worlds medallist Pooja Dhanda will compete in 59kg," said the coach.

Fostering Curiosity & Creativity and Strengthening Foundation for Informed Citizens

Former Minister Ramalinga Reddy has turned 20 Government schools and colleges in Bengaluru as model institutions, believing in the potential power of education. He has been employing all his energies in seeking to bring change by creating foundations that are futuristic in infrastructure and equipped with exceptional faculty members, teaching methodologies and latest technologies

Driven by determination to set a precedent with his administrative skills, former Minister and BTM Assembly, MLA R Ramalinga Reddy has adopted government schools and colleges out of which 22 are now remodeled and no less than corporate schools in terms of infrastructure.

The assembly has 22 institutions, including schools and colleges. 20 are completed and functioning. Work in progress at Mestripalya and work yet to start at N S Palya.

Infrastructure

Fancy desks/benches, green boards, well-lit class rooms, dining hall, computer lab with minimum 5-15 systems, library, auditorium (in 10 schools and colleges), high-rise stone wall compound, 24/7 water supply, electicity. All are equipped with CCTV cameras connected to HM chamber. One of striking features of the revamp and infrastructure is that the MLA has also made provision for a swimming pool at Government Primary School at CAR Quarters Audugodi, work on which will be completed in the next few weeks.

Karnataka Public (Muni Chinappa) School) Adugodi

Similarly, Karnataka Public (Muni Chinappa School) Adugodi's campus is spread over two acres and houses kindergarten, primary, high school and PU College as well. The grand children of the land donors had insisted that the MLA retain their grandfather Muni Chinnappa's name and their request accepted.

The school was started in 1945 during Mysuru administration. It was named Audugody Model School and was inaugurated by the then Revenue and Law Minister O Pulla Reddy. With funds for infrastructure from Ramalinga Reddy, the instituition now wears a new look. The old doors and concrete window for ventillation are retained to cherish old memories. The classroom for kindergarten and primary are theme-based and has drawings of animals, birds, rainbow on walls. Comfortable seating has been provided and children can keep their bags and books below their desks.

Students are individually given tasks to make others read from what is written on board in English and other language. "From KG to class 7, we have 260 strengeth. In 2019, we had around 230 students. Teachers visit the nearby localities like Mahalingeshwara Layout and LR Nagar as more number of middle and backward class background people live and their children should also be empowered," said Veena HC, Head Mistress of the school.

She further added that, there are 10 teachers for the school and interestingly, house keeping staff have been recruited by Ramalinga Reddy, who roped in donors; a feature which cannot be found in other government schools. House keeping staff members are engaged for distribution of food to children and three are to keep class and wash rooms clean.

The main focus of teaching is to ensure that children learn English from Primary level so that their confidence level shoots up when they move to High School.

Admission in High School as well College has also increased in this campus. In 2018, the High School strength was 230 and now it has increased by 40 more and in the College there are 436 students now. In 2019, the College had only 200 students.

Since Bosch Company is on the same premises, it helped with funds and sponsored sweaters to all the instituitions in the government schools and colleges in BTM.

"With just word of mouth, the instituitions including PU College has gained much prominance. We hope to see few more admissions in coming weeks as many students who are willing to join are yet to get their Transfer Certificate from their previous private schools," said CN Doreswamy, Principal of Karnataka Public School, Audugodi Campus.

Government Model Primary School, Koramangala Village

The Government Model Primary School at Koramangala Village surely stands out from the rest. The school with students from lower and middle income group background children witnessed a spike in admission as its number now stands at 415.

According to Sudha K M, Head Mistress of the school, this year 65 extra admissions from class 1 to 8 took place compared to 2021. "Interestingly, students from private schools are now coming to government schools. Thanks to Ramalinga Reddy, our MLA, who roped in donors and arranged funds to give best possible infrastructure. Our school is now very similar to a convent or corporate school with 18 rooms," she said.

Govt Upper Primary School Tavarekere

The Government Upper Primary School Tavarekere which was started in 1959, has now caught the attention of poor and middle income groups from Maduramma Colony, Gundlu Thopu, Tavarekere Main Road as parents who were sending their children to private schools by paying more money can breath a sigh of relief as the school is revamped with a seperate dining hall. Food supplements during lunch hours by government for free is offered.

All the government schools adopted by MLA Ramalinga Reddy are unlike the common sight seen in most other such government schools. With a corporate aura to all schools, excellent facilities, house-keeping staff, security, clean washrooms, auditoriums, comfortable desks and seats, well-stocked library and laboratories, each of these schools reflect a sense of joy among the students, teachers, and parents. Of the 22 schools, 20 have been completed. Remodelling of the school at Mestripalya is in progress while permission is being sought from authorities for the one at N. S. Palya.

I had initiated this measure and told all MLAs to adopted government schools. I suggested Ramalinga Reddy to take up 3 schools atleast, but he took all the government schools and colleges in his assembly for development and has done a wonderful job. The 1st phase is to bring good infrastructure in government schools and second in improving of quality by training teachers subject wise, hiring more teachers as per my recommendation.

A school must have as one of its principal functions the nurturing of excellence. And for that, while ideal teachers as bridges are a must, there has to be a hand to hold them and guide them through. Ramalinga Reddy is one such hand that gives not just direction, but courage too. He has made the entire experience of learning and teaching a memorable one, providing all top-notch facilities which were never before seen or heard in government schools.

Dr. K. P. Gopalakrishna, Founder Chairman,
National Public School

It is a wonderful initiative by a senior politician like Ramalinga Reddy. It sets a precedent for other MLAs and MPs to follow. The initiative will bring more students into Government schools. The good infrastructure for school education is a must as it is the beginning of a learning career and Ramalinga Reddy has shown the right way. The government also must respond and must appoint quality teachers in all schools.

What the parents and students say about us!

We are happy with the atmosphere in our schools. They have all required facilities such as smart classes, well equipped computer class, and library as well. There is an auditorium and play area monitored by CCTV. The classrooms are neat and decorated. It looks more like a private school.

An electricity pylon is seen in Lydd, southern England. A deepening cost-of-living crisis in Britain is about to worsen, with millions of people expected to pay more

UK crisis worsens, will see 80% spike in gas & electricity bills

LONDON

BRITISH households on Friday faced an eye-watering 80% hike in electricity and gas bills, in a dramatic worsening of the cost-of-living crisis before winter.

Regulator Ofgem said its energy price cap, which sets prices for consumers who are not on a fixed deal with their supplier, will increase from October 1 to an average £3,549 per year from the current £1,971.

Worse is expected to come in January, when Ofgem next updates its cap, with average bills predicted to top £5,000 or more. Ofgem blamed the increase on the spike in global wholesale gas prices after the lifting of Covid curbs and Russian restrictions on supplies.

But it sparked outcry about the effect on already financially squeezed households, pensioners and the sick and growing calls for people not to pay.

Diane Skidmore, 72 and makes do on £600 a month told AFP she would turn off her heating in winter and use blankets and jumpers to try to keep her rocketing bills down.

The chief executive of Marie Curie cancer care charity, Matthew Reed, said terminally ill people it helps need specialist medical equipment and warned they "could freeze to death this winter without further support".

UK inflation is already in double-digits and forecast to strike 13% in the coming months due to runaway energy bills. Inflation is at its highest level since 1982, with industrial action over pay growing, and the country is predicted to enter recession later this year.

The near-doubling in the energy cap will likely tip millions into fuel poverty, forcing them to choose between heating or eating, anti-poverty experts say.

More than 115,000 have pledged to protest on October 1, said the Don't Pay action group, which wants bills reduced to affordable levels.

Ofgem boss Jonathan Brearley acknowledged the difficulties. "I talk to customers regularly and I know that today's news will be very worrying for many," he said. AFP

Meant to prevent radiation absorption; cables distributing power to Ukraine from Zaporizhzhia damaged, repaired

KYIV

A team from the UN's International Atomic Energy Agency is expected to visit the Russian-occupied Zaporizhzhia nuclear plant in Ukraine soon. The visit comes after the plant was temporarily knocked offline, fueling fears of a catastrophe in a nation still haunted by the 1986 Chernobyl disaster

There were conflicting reports Friday on the extent of the damage to a transmission line at the complex—Europe's largest nuclear plant—that caused a blackout across the region on Thursday. It was not immediately clear whether the damaged line carried outgoing electricity or incoming power that is needed for the reactors' vital cooling systems. A loss of cooling could cause a nuclear meltdown.

Russia-installed officials in the Zaporizhzhia region have blamed Ukraine for the fire. They said on Friday that plant was functioning normally but that because of the problem, the plant was only supplying electricity to Russia-controlled areas and not the rest of Ukraine.

Ukrenergo, Ukraine's electricity transmission system operator, however, reported on Friday that the two main power lines supplying the Zaporizhzhia plant with electricity that were damaged by the Russian shelling have resumed operation.

"Thanks to this, a stable power supply and safe operation of nuclear waste storage facilities and other important facilities located at the ZNPP site were ensured," Ukrenergo reported on Telegram. The statement added that the company's repair teams will soon complete the restoration of another main line, further boosting the safety of the power plant.

Meawhile, authorities began distributing iodine tablets to residents near Zaporizhzhia nuclear power plant on Friday in case of a radiation leak, amid mounting fears that the fighting around the complex could trigger a catastrophe.

The move came a day after the plant was temporarily knocked offline because of what officials said was fire damage to a transmission line. The incident heightened dread of a nuclear disaster in a country still haunted by the 1986 explosion at Chernobyl.

Continued shelling was reported in the area overnight, and satellite images from Planet Labs showed fires burning around the complex — Europe's biggest nuclear plant — over the last several days.

Britain faces another strike, postal workers demand equal pay

Thousands of postal workers in the UK on Friday began a series of strikes over pay, as the cost-of-living crisis prompts mass industrial action in numerous sectors

FIGHT FOR RIGHTS

In east London, postal workers stood outside a delivery office waving flags and chanting, "What do we want? Decent pay!"

Workers at Royal Mail Group, who deliver parcels and letters across the nation, are joining picket lines across the UK in protest after being given a pay raise that falls far short of inflation

Friday is the first of several planned days of strikes by 115,000 members of The Communication Workers Union (CWU), representing Royal Mail Group workers

They also plan to strike on Wednesday and September 8 and 9

DISRUPTION IN SERVICE

Royal Mail Group said on its website that "customers should expect significant disruption" and it will not be delivering letters on days when strike action is taking place

The union said a 97.6% majority had voted to strike after having an unagreed 2% pay deal imposed on them, while UK inflation is now in double digits

"The pay dispute is not complicated," the CWU said in a statement. "Our members need it, our members deserve it—the company can afford it"

It cited the fact that the privatised Royal Mail Group announced $896 million in profits for last year

BRITAIN'S ECONOMIC CRISIS

Strike action in the UK is taking place in sectors with large numbers of unionised workers, including previously publicly owned structures such as Royal Mail and railways

The strikes come as the energy regulator Ofgem announced the near doubling of a price cap on energy bills for households not on fixed-term tariffs to average £3,549 per year

> We want a substantial pay rise for our members. We want that to be reflecting the efforts that our members put in during the pandemic to keep the company going

Truss under fire over 'jury's out' remark on Macron

LONDON

BRITAIN'S prime ministerial hopeful Liz Truss, came under fire on Friday over her 'jury was still out' remarks about French President Emmanuel Macron.

The Foreign Secretary's remark came as she was asked if President Macron was a 'friend or foe' of the UK at a Tory leadership hustings. Tuss added that if elected Prime Minister, she would judge Macron on 'deeds not words'.

She was responding at the event in Norwich and in response to the same question, Sunak replied that the French President was a 'friend' and has previously said he wants to reset the UK's relationship with Europe if he wins the race to succeed Johnson.

Macron himself responded by accusing the Cabinet minister of 'grandstanding', while striking a more diplomatic tone. "It is never good to lose one's bearings. Let me put it another way. Whoever is the person considered the next leader of Britain, I don't have any doubts. Britain is a friend of France," said the French President.

The Opposition Labour Party accused Truss of 'a woeful lack of judgement' as it would be seen as an insult of one of 'Britain's closest allies'.

Truss' own party colleagues also took to social media to criticise her comments, with former foreign minister Alistair Burt saying she has made a 'serious error' and should have struck a more diplomatic tone.

Another former Tory minister David Gauke said, "There's playing to the gallery and then there's letting the prejudices of the gallery go to your head, especially when now is one of the worst times to try to fragment the West."

Truss' comments have also been picked up by French media, which has highlighted post-Brexit strain in the UK-French relationship as well as recent tensions over migrant boat crossings in the English Channel. PTI

US releases redacted Don resort search affidavit

WASHINGTON

FOURTEEN of the 15 boxes recovered from former president Donald Trump's Florida estate early this year contained documents with classification markings, including at the top secret level, according to an FBI affidavit released on Friday explaining the justification for this month's search of the property.

The 32-page affidavit, even in its heavily redacted form, offers the most detailed description to date of the government records being stored at Trump's Mar-a-Lago property long after he left the White House and reveals the gravity of the government's concerns that the documents were there illegally.

"The government is conducting a criminal investigation concerning the improper removal and storage of classified information in unauthorized spaces, as well as the unlawful concealment or removal of government records," an FBI agent wrote on the first page of the affidavit in seeking a judge's permission for a warrant to search the property.

The affidavit does not provide new details about the 11 sets of classified records recovered during the Aug. 8 search at Mar-a-Lago but instead concerns a separate batch of 15 boxes that the National Archives and Records Administration retrieved from the home in January.

In a separate document, Justice Department officials explained that it was necessary to redact some information to "protect the safety and privacy of a significant number of civilian witnesses. AP

Ethiopian air raid kills four, kindergarten hit

ADDIS ABABA

Four people were killed on Friday in an Ethiopian air strike on Tigray's capital city, a hospital official said, as the government denied it had targeted civilians in the rebel-held region.

The strike on Mekele, the first in many months, came just days after ground fighting resumed between government forces and rebels, ending a five-month truce and dashing hopes of peace talks.

Kibrom Gebreselassie, chief clinical director at Mekele's Ayder Referral Hospital, told AFP in a text message, "Four are dead by the time they arrive (at) the hospital. Two of the dead are children."

Nine others were receiving treatment for injuries, he said.

The Tigray People's Liberation Front (TPLF), which recaptured Tigray from government forces in June 2021, said a residential area and a kindergarten were hit.

"Civilians are dead and injured" and a rescue operation was under way, Kindeya Gebrehiwot, a TPLF spokesman, told AFP in a message.

Two humanitarian sources in Ethiopia told AFP they had been notified of an air strike in Mekele, but provided no details about targets or casualties.

The government denied the allegations, saying the air force had only targeted military sites, and accused the TPLF of staging civilian deaths. AFP

Complete vaccination vital for foreign nationals

It is now mandatory for foreign nationals to complete their Covid-19 vaccination. Those who are 18 and above and are travelling within the country must receive at least two doses of the vaccine. Early budget unveiling sparks talk of snap polls

Malaysia's government said on Friday it will present its 2023 national budget on October 7, three weeks ahead of schedule, sparking speculation that it may call an early general election. Polls aren't due until September next year, but Prime Minister Ismail Sabri Yaakob has come under pressure from his United Malays National Organisation party to dissolve Parliament for an early vote. Law Minister Wan Junaidi Tuanku Jaafar said in a statement that the budget will be unveiled on October 7 instead of October 28. He further said Parliament's final sitting of the year will be brought forward for that purpose. An election must be called within 60 days after Parliament is dissolved. If it is called this year, it will likely be before late November to avoid the year-end monsoon season

PAKISTAN DECLARES EMERGENCY, SEEKS HELP AMID FLOODS

SUKKUR

HEAVY rain pounded much of Pakistan on Friday after the government declared an emergency to deal with monsoon flooding it said had affected more than 30 million people.

The annual monsoon is essential for irrigating crops and replenishing lakes and dams across the Indian subcontinent, but each year it also brings a wave of destruction.

The National Disaster Management Authority (NDMA) said Friday that more than 900 people had been killed this year—including 34 in the last 24 hours as a result of the monsoon rains that began in June.

Pakistani Prime Minister Shahbaz Sharif asked Friday for international help in battling deadly flood damage in the impoverished Islamic nation as rescuers struggled to evacuate thousands of marooned people from flood-hit areas.

"The ongoing rain spell has caused devastation across the country," he tweeted, thanking other countries and groups for their support. "Together we will build back better."

Sharif visited flood-hit areas in Sindh province of Friday, assuring flood victims of the government's support. Some 6,500 Pakistani troops are taking part in the search and rescue operations and have so far evacuated more than 40,000 people.

As per Climate Change Minister Sherry Rehman, the pressing challenge at the moment was saving lives and arranging tents and food for those left homeless by teh floods. Agencies

COLOMBO

An outspoken Sri Lankan politician imprisoned last year for accusing the island nation's judges of corruption was released Friday after a presidential pardon.

Ranjan Ramanayake, 59, was serving as a deputy minister in 2017 when he told reporters that most of the judiciary were dishonest and 'work for money'.

He was convicted of contempt of court and jailed for four years in January 2021 but walked free after a reprieve from President Ranil Wickremesinghe.

"I will continue my campaign against corruption," Ramanayake told a press. "I want to contest elections and work for my people."

Freed SL politician Ranjan Ramanayake

The president granted the pardon after Ramanayake apologised to courts, a government official said. Ramanayake had claimed he was targeted for speaking out against corruption.

He was also arrested in 2020 and charged for allegedly recording more than 100,000 personal phone calls.

The sometimes lewd and compromising contents were leaked on social media, causing a major scandal.

In some of the tapes, Ramanayake is heard discussing court cases with judges, police, politicians and local celebrities.

Police seized hard drives from his home and announced a probe into whether the recordings had been used for blackmail or other criminal activity. The investigation remains open.

Meanwhile, children in cash-strapped Sri Lanka are "going to bed hungry" because of the island nation's economic crisis, the UN said on Friday, warning other South Asian countries could be approaching similar shortages. AFP

DEEPTI NAVARATNA CHATS WITH CE ABOUT HER DEBUT BOOK THE MAVERICK MAHARAJA, A BIOGRAPHY BASED ON THE LIFE AND TIMES OF MAHARAJA JAYACHAMARAJENDRA WADIYAR

THE REGAL POLYMATH

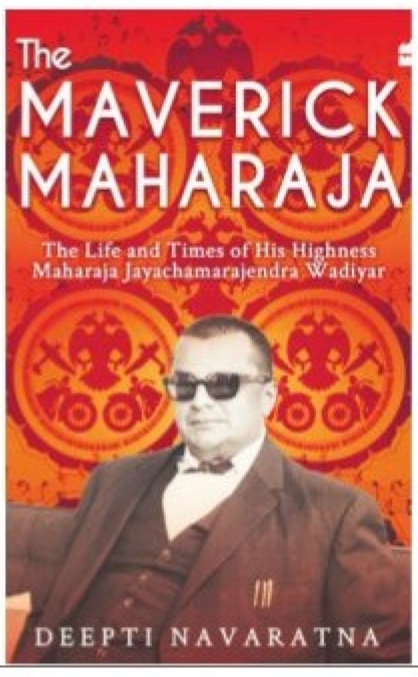
TUNIR BISWAS

WHAT if you were to find out that there once existed a man of royal lineage who was born during wartime, lived through multiple famines, was instrumental in setting up some of the premiere research institutions in India, and was one of the most prolific composers in Carnatic music? Sounds pretty unbelievable right? Now, what if someone told you that there aren't any biographical accounts of this man and his contributions in all the libraries of the world? At least, not until now.

Deepti Navaratna, the T V Raman Pai Chair Professor of Excellence at the National Institute for Advanced Studies, Bengaluru, has come out with her book The Maverick Maharaja, based on the life and times of noble polymath Maharaja Jayachamarajendra Wadiyar. This book doesn't only debut Navaratna as an author but also debuts the late Maharaja as the primary subject in a written text.

"For the last seven years, I've been researching and archiving his music. He was a Carnatic and south Indian classical music composer and his music in the 19th century sort of reflected upon the sensibilities of the East and the West. He brought western classical syntax and grammar into Karnataka idioms and invented new ragas. He straddled the contemporary and the classical all at the same time. I was drawn to his music, writings, speeches, and maverick persona," says Navaratna. The Maharaja had composed nearly 100 Carnatic kritis even before he turned 30.

While researching Maharaja Wadiyar, who ruled over Mysuru in the 1940s and was later the governor of Mysore, Navaratna felt it was important for the new generation to know about the man and his cultural contributions. "This book is about a man who lived multiple lifetimes before us and so, we as a generation, are looking at history. I wanted to present the account of an inspirational speaker, who lived gracefully and charted new possibilities of existence. How often do you find a composer, a pianist, a philosopher, and a Maharaja all rolled into one? Through this man's example, we find an exciting mix of artistry and leadership that India has produced. I want this book to be read by our generation and the generations to come. To celebrate the history and our identity as Indians," shares Navaratna, who aside from being a neuroscientist, is the regional director of the Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts, Bengaluru.



The MAVERICK MAHARAJA
The Life and Times of His Highness Maharaja Jayachamarajendra Wadiyar
DEEPTI NAVARATNA

Regarding the writing process of this biography, Navaratna took the know-the-man-through-his-muse approach. "It is not a typical chronicle. What I mean by that is the book doesn't just list down all the historic events in his life in a series of anecdotes. Instead, I have taken a holistic approach. The book also provides the context of all the major events that Mysore, his kingdom, went through during the birthing of India. Since he left us with an ample amount of literature, music, and archival data, I thought the best way to approach the book would be through his reflections because then I could scientifically reconstruct his personality," says Navaratna.

During the launch of the book, the Maharaja's compositions were played by the Mysore Police Carnatic Band. "Choosing this band came naturally since, historically, they were the royal orchestra of Mysore's court. They're the only Western ensemble that plays Carnatic music. Back then, Maharaja composed specifically for this orchestra because his compositions, just like the band, were a beautiful fusion between Western syntax and Eastern music. So most of his music was composed for this orchestra," concludes Navaratna. The daughters of the Maharaja, Maharajakumari Kamakshi Devi Wadiyar, and Maharajakumari Indrakshi Devi Wadiyar also attended the event.

SOUNDS OF FREEDOM

Bengaluru will see musicians coming from all parts of the country to perform at this festival that celebrates India's traditions of classical and folk music

TUNIR BISWAS

IN celebration of India's 75th year of Independence, the Indian Music Experience Museum (IME) is organising the Freedom Festival, a three-day music festival, in collaboration with Carnatica and Banglanatak. Musicians from across the country will perform various genres of traditional music this country is home to. The festival is at IME in JP Nagar and will conclude on Aug. 28.

"We will be having Carnatic, Hindustani and folk musicians performing. To celebrate the Freedom Festival, we wanted to present an event that represents the music of India, which is rooted in classical and folk traditions," says Manasi Prasad, a Carnatic classical vocalist and museum director of IME.

Carnatic vocalist RK Padmanabha, who performed on the inaugural day, feels Bengaluru is a great place for such a multicultural music festival. "The Bengaluru folks have a great taste for all cultural activities. People will appreciate the variety of programmes at this festival," says Padmanabha.

As many as 13 concerts will be performed in the three-day celebration. As folk music is part of every Indian region, musicians from Karnataka, Rajasthan and West Bengal will be representing the country's folk lineage at this year's festival. Padma Vibhushan awardee Dr Umayalpuram Sivaraman will also be rendering a special performance at the festival.

"Seventy-five years of Independence is such a significant milestone not just for Indian history, but also for Indian culture and its representation on global platforms. One of the most important parts of that culture is our rich music and dance tradition, for which I am so grateful. It is in this wonderful country that I have been able to pursue my passion for Carnatic music," says singer and composer Sudha Ragunathan.

FIT BIT

SUPTA GARUDASANA

(RECLINED EAGLE POSE)

In this supine position, since the back is supported, the practitioners don't have to fear balancing their bodies like in the traditional pose, Garudasana. It can be a preparatory pose for beginners to learn the binding action of arms and legs while in the pose. This variation is for students with obesity or larger bodies.

STEPS

- Lie in Supta Tadasana (Reclined Mountain Pose) and stay for a couple of breaths. Inhale, bend at the knees.
- Inhale, and raise the right foot from the floor to cross it over the left leg. Rest the back of the right thigh on the front of the left thigh and bring the foot out on the other side.
- Move the right foot around the left calf, moving the left leg a bit forward so that the right shin touches the left calf and the right big toe hooks just above the inner side of the left ankle.
- Lift the legs, point toes forward, making the lower legs parallel to the ground.
- Lift the arms to the level of the chest. Rest the left elbow in front of the right upper arm near the elbow joint. Then move the left hand back to the right and the right hands back to the left and join the palms. The left arm is locked around the right arm.
- Move your locked arms back so that you point your fingers backward. Gaze at your arms, or close eyes. Stay here for six breaths.
- Release the arms, lower the legs, and come back to Savasana Variation Bent legs and relax. Repeat on the other side.

LIMITATIONS

People with hip, knee, ankle, shoulder, elbow, wrist, or neck injury, varicose veins or abdominal, hip or shoulder surgery, avoid this. Pregnant women should avoid after a few months.

BENEFITS

- Stretches and strengthens the muscles of the hips, knees, ankles, gluteus, arms, shoulders, and neck.
- Strengthens the upper back and scapula muscles.
- Increases flexibility in the calves, arms, gluteus, upper back, pelvic floor, and quadriceps muscles.
- Opens the chest, which enhances the heart and lungs functioning.
- Tones and strengthens the lower body.
- Releases stress and tension.
- Stimulates the digestive and reproductive systems.

ON THE ROCKS

THE Paloma is arguably the perfect cocktail. With a base of bright citrus and smooth tequila that's punched up by a sparkling splash of grapefruit soda and lime, it's sweet, sour, and refreshing.

While the history of the drink is rather nebulous, there is no suggestion that the drink was ever anything more than a two-ingredient crowd-pleaser. Taste Cocktails suggests the drink was named after La Paloma (The Dove), the popular folk song composed in the early 1860s. Today, the Paloma is possibly the most popular cocktail around the world. A combination of fruity, sweet and bitter, the drink is easy to make and easier to consume. "It's a great alternative to the margarita as it's not as strong in ABV (Alcohol By Volume) because it's a long drink, it's slightly less acidic, bubbly and very refreshing."

I don't know why Paloma escaped our collective attention for so long. Maybe it's the resurgence of old-school classics or maybe, sheltering-in-place has us in a tequila frame of mind. I like making my Palomas in a big pot and leaving it in the middle of the party table for people to enjoy.

A BANG-ON DEBUT FOR DHEEREN RAMKUMAR

A SHARADHAA

SHIVA 143

Cast: Dheeren Ramkumar, Manvita Kamath, Charanraj, Avinash, Shobaraj, Puneeth Rudranag, Bala Rajwadi, Sadhu Kokila, Chikkanna

Director: Anil Kumar

SHIVA 143 is the launch pad for Sandalwood matinee icon Dr Rajkumar's grandson Dheeren Ramkumar. A youthful love drama, Shiva 143 is not a story about eternal love, or an adorable romance between lead actors. The film is a complete entertainment package, which has ample measures of action, dance, drama, bloodshed, and some comedy too.

A faithful remake of Telugu hit, RX 100 (2018), Shiva 143 follows the same pattern of the original and has enough changes to suit the Kannada nativity.

The entry of Shiva (Dheeren Ram Kumar) with the signature tune of Shivarajkumar's 'Om' — I Love You, You must love me — kickstart things. Shiva lives life on his own terms, and is shown waiting for someone for the past 3 years. He is a volatile person, and the reason for this behaviour is explored in the flashback. We see the story of two passionate lovers — Shiva and Madhu (Manvitha Kamath) — whose romance is cut short, and the two part ways due to family pressure. Madhu heads to the US but Shiva continues to wait for his love. But there is a plot twist to the tale that is unveiled in the second half, which turns this romantic film into a revenge drama with a bloody ending.

RATING 3/5

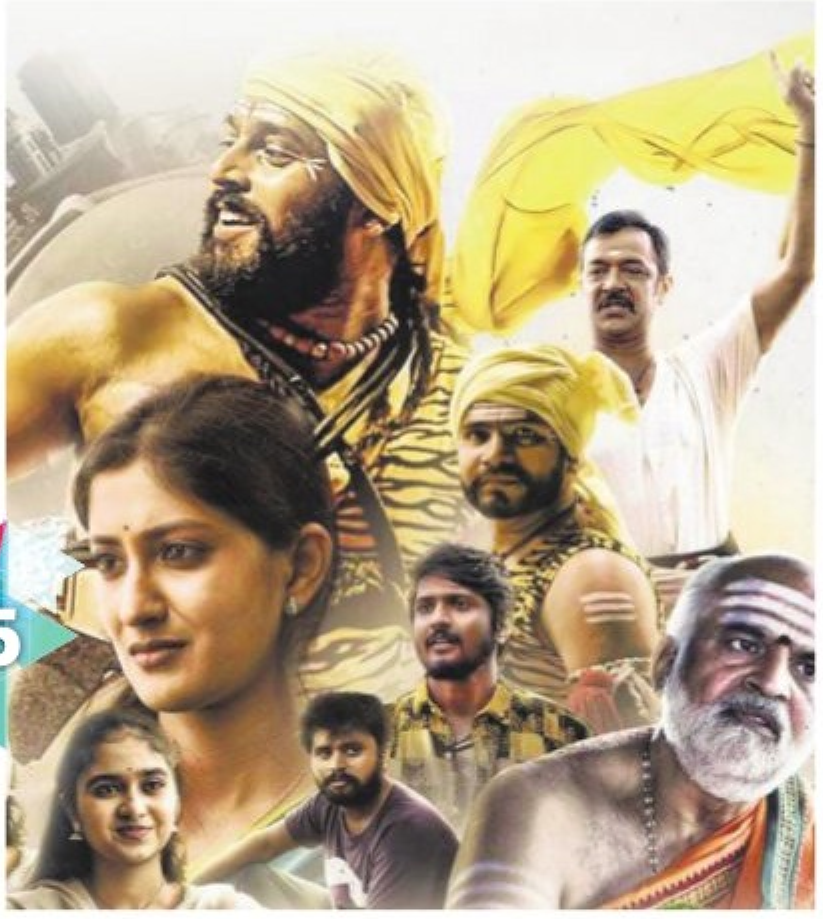
Just like the original film directed by Ajay Bhupathi, Shiva 143 too has gone with an intimate romance coupled with moments of gore and bloodshed. The Kannada version too has a slow start but gets into its own pace in the second half. Anil Kumar's Shiva 143 is packaged perfectly for a debutant, who wants to showcase his mass and talent to the audience.

In his debut film, Dheeren Ramkumar looks confident and makes a strong impact right in his first project. Not wanting to go with the usual chocolate boy image, Dheeren gives us a rugged hero, who has the potential to make a mark in Sandalwood by choosing the right scripts.

Manvita Kamath, who is known for her roles in Kendasampige and Tagaru, provides an edge to the film, and she does a commendable job of playing a rather unconventional role. Charanraj, who plays Shiva's foster father, comes up with a noteworthy performance. He is ably supported by Avinash, who plays Madhu's father. Puneeth Rudranag as the antagonist is on point, and on the comedy front, Chikkanna is a breath of fresh air, but Sadhu Kokila delivers a largely forgettable track. To sum up, Shiva 143, is a decent launch for Dheeren Ramkumar, who scores high with his very first attempt at becoming the next big star from the Rajkumar family.

Commendable take on the dying art

A SHARADHAA



DOLLU

Cast: Karthik Mahesh, Nidhi Hegde, Babu Hirannaiah, Chandra Mayur

Director: Sagar Puranik

NATIONAL award-winning director Sagar Puranik's Dollu serves as a telling reminder about a dying art. The director gives an insight into the traditional arts and indeed reminds us that the soul of the art will always survive. Weaving a simple yet profound tale, Sagar lends a personality to the exploration of the art even while blending in the struggle and helplessness of the artists.

RATING 3/5

The film is about a team of young boys led by Bhadra (Karthik Mahesh) who earn their living through playing the dollu, and hope for a better future soon. However, reality dawns on them, and they are forced to move away from each other and migrate to cities for employment. However, Bhadra is adamant to stay back and take forward the tradition. He goes about finding a solution to keep the art alive, which forms the crux of the story that ends with a rather unconventional but powerful climax.

Puranik won the National award for his non-feature debut, Mahaan Hutatma, and his first full-length feature, Dollu, too won him national recognition. Even with Dollu, he effectively portrays the harsh realities of life, and how the existence of traditional art is hampered by urbanisation. A silver lining about this take is how women are the hope in preserving this art.

Dollu marks Pawan Wadeyar's first production venture, and a special mention should go to the talented artistes, who perform brilliantly with noteworthy choreography. Nature forms a beautiful backdrop to the story, which is at times slow and predictable.

Though well made and deservedly applaudable, the message intended to be delivered could have been much stronger.
